INDIAN INSTITUTE OF ADVANCED STUDY IN SHIMLA AT THE RISK OF 'SINKING'

The institute urged the Centre and the state government to conduct a risk assessment following a massive landslide near the campus

LANDSLIDE BEGAN AT EDGE OF INSTITUTE'S LAWN

The landslide that killed 21 in Shimla's Summer Hill area earlier this week began at the edge of the institute's outer lawn. The affected area has been covered with plastic sheets to prevent water seepage. Also, a road inside the campus, near its main building, has been sinking, sources said. "We are altering the course of the water on the road so that it doesn't flow towards the sinking side," a source said

WHOLE STATE MARKED CALAMITY-HIT AREA

- Himachal Pradesh on Friday declared the massive damage caused by heavy rains as a state calamity. Chief Minister Sukhvinder Singh Sukhu said proper drainage and cross-drainage system would be made mandatory for roads
- Set up in 1964, the institute is a residential centre for advanced research in areas of humanities, social sciences, and natural and life sciences

Manipur mob at it again, kills three Kuki-Zos

Attack in state's Naga-majority Ukhrul dist

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @Guwahati

FRESH violence broke out in Manipur after 13 days on Friday with three Kuki-Zo tribals gunned down by unidentified assailants in the state's Naga-majority Ukhrul district. The victims were all males aged between 24 and 35.

The attack happened in an area that is 2 km from Thouwai Kuki, a Kuki village. The village lies around 10 km from Meity-majority Imphal Valley and some 50 km from Ukhrul district headquarters.

The police said the incident is suspected to be a continuation of the ethnic violence that broke out in the state on May 3 after a 'Tribal Solidarity March' was organised to protest against the Meitei demand for Scheduled Tribe status.

"A kind of war is going on between two ethnic groups, so we suspect it to be the continuation of that," Ukhrul Superintendent of Police Ningsem Vashum told this newspaper.

An operation by the police and security forces to track down the assailants is underway, he said. "We don't know how many assailants were there," Vashum added.

Meanwhile, the State government sought a report from the Churachandpur district administration on the display of alleged sophisticated firearms by some people during an unofficial Independence Day parade.

Speaking on the occasion of Sadbhavana Diwas Chief Minister N Biren Singh said restoration of peace and normalcy is of paramount importance. He called on people to come together and work harder to make up for the lost three-four months. "People should work doubly hard so that the pace of development returns," the Manipur CM said.

Nagamohan Das panel to probe '40% cut'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE state government has constituted a committee headed by Justice HN Nagamohan Das, retired High Court judge, to conduct an inquiry into the contractors' allegation of demand for 40 per cent commission to clear the bills for project works undertaken by them during the BJP rule.

Chief Minister Siddaramaiah said the Congress has fulfilled its promise made in its manifesto for the May 10 Assembly elections to constitute a committee to probe the allegation against the previous BJP government, headed by then chief minister Basavaraj Bommai.

The committee has been asked to give a report within 30 days after probing the allegation made by Karnataka State Contractors' Association president D Kempanna. It has also been asked to inspect project sites to check the quality of work and examine all documents pertaining to the execution of projects.

The committee has been asked to give a comprehensive report with details of irregularities and those responsible for them, according to a Government Order (GO).

The committee has also been asked to give its suggestions and recommendations. It will probe whether administrative approvals were issued as per rules, examine the quality of work and any unusual increase in the cost of projects, and reasons for deviating from original estimates.

The government order stated that the committee will examine if bills of contractors were cleared for projects that have not been implemented and if excess payment was made.

The committee will examine if the tender process was tweaked to help some contractors and other irregularities.

Officials from various departments have been directed to provide all assistance to the committee.

They have also been directed to be present at their offices during the visits by the committee members. The committee can also take the assistance of an independent agency for testing the quality of project work.

Kempanna, who had written to Prime Minister Narendra Modi seeking a probe into the demand for 40per cent commission, had stated that the contractors were ready to provide documents to prove their allegations.

Treat hate speech from this side or that alike: SC

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

HATE speech, whether be it from one side or the other, must be treated alike and dealt with under the law, the Supreme Court said during a brief hearing on Friday.

A bench of justices Sanjiv Khanna and S V N Bhati made the remark after it was informed that calls in the form of provocative slogans demanding death to Hindus were raised by members of youth wing of the Indian Union Muslim League during a rally.

"I'm clear whether it be one side or the other, they have to be treated alike and wherever there is hate speech, they will be dealt with in accordance with law," the bench said.

The judges had previously suggested constituting district-wise committees across the country to look into such instances and taking suitable action. It had sought the Centre's view on the proposal but didn't find the time to hear it. The matter will come up before the bench next Friday. The court allowed both sides to file documents and written submissions, and posted all petitions on curbing hate speech for August 25.

During the last hearing, the court had said, "We can ask the DGP to constitute a committee of three-four officers nominated by him. When he receives the material on hate speech he can refer it to the panel to check the authenticity and issue directions... The problem is, at the SHO level or at the level of the police station, the understanding of nuances of the law is little different. Senior or mid-level officers can sensitise them."

Govt issues draft notification on BBMP ward delimitation

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

IN a late night development on Friday, the state government issued a draft notification on the delimitation of BBMP wards.

Soon after, the government sought citizens' feedback and suggestions in writing. They do not have the option of submitting their feedback through email or other social media platforms.

As per the notification, there will be 225 wards instead of 243 proposed earlier. The Palike now has 198 wards.

The government stated that it has withdrawn the notification of January 29, 2021, putting the number of wards at 243. It accepted the draft report of ward-wise delimitation submitted on August 14 by the BBMP Chief Commissioner and Administrator, based on the census of 2011. Individuals or institutions who wish to file objections or suggestions on delimitation of wards should do so on or before 15 days from the date of notification. They should be submitted in writing to the Additional Chief Secretary, Department of Urban Development Department, 436, 4th Floor, Vikasa Soudha, Dr BR Ambedkar Veedhi, Bengaluru - 560001. P2

Maiden flight of LCA naval trainer NP5 successful

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE Light Combat Aircraft (LCA) Naval Trainer Prototype NP5 successfully completed its maiden flight on Friday.

The aircraft, which took off from HAL airport, was airborne 57 minutes with all parameters normal, according to Defence Research and Development Organisation (DRDO).

The aircraft, which incorporates the production standard airframe and rainwater compliance, maintainability improvements as well as futuristic system advancement, was captained by Capt Amit Kawade (Indian Navy) with Wg Cdr Siddarth Singh (Retd) in the rear cockpit.

Capt Kawade said the handling qualities were extremely satisfactory and all test points envisaged have been successfully completed. LCA Navy is designed and developed jointly by Aeronautical Development Agency (ADA) and Hindustan Aeronautics Limited (HAL), Bangalore. The first trainer prototype NP1 was flown on April 27, 2012, and the fighter prototype NP2 on February 7, 2015. Both Naval Prototypes (NP1 and NP2) have achieved major milestones such as ski-jump take-off and arrested landing demonstrations on Shore Based Test Facility at Dabolim Airport, Goa, and operations from indigenous aircraft carriers. DISSENT RISK TO RATING: MOODY'S

MONIKA YADAV @New Delhi

US-based rating agency Moody's Investors Service on Friday flagged the shrinking space for civil society and political dissent, and rising sectarian tensions in India, while affirming the country's credit rating at the lowest investment grade of 'Baa3' with a stable outlook.

Moody's said it believes India's economy will grow rapidly compared to international standards, although potential growth has decreased in the last 7-10 years.

"Although elevated political polarisation is unlikely to lead to a material destabilisation of government, rising domestic political tensions suggest an ongoing risk of populist policies amid the prevalence of social risks such as poverty and income inequality, as well as inequitable access to education and basic services," it added.

According to the rating agency, India's high GDP growth will lead to rising income levels and overall economic resilience, which will support fiscal consolidation and government debt stabilisation.

Moody's expects India's economic growth to outpace all G20 economies for the next two years, driven by domestic demand. However, it feels India's potential growth of 6- 6.5% remains lower than estimates.

HIGH DEBT BURDEN

The rating agency highlighted the risks associated with India's high debt burden and weak debt affordability, especially in the face of lasting upward shifts in global and domestic interest rates

Why delay in disposing of disputes, officials asked

Revenue Minister promises to clear files within hours

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

REVENUE Minister Krishna Byre Gowda has given officials a four-month deadline to settle hundreds of land dispute cases pending at the Tahsildar, Assistant Commissioner (AC) and Deputy Commissioner (DC) level courts for six months to five years.

"Why are the authorities following a policy of delay in disposing of cases reserved for orders, after trial?" he questioned.

Speaking at the revenue department's progress review meeting here on Friday, he said a total of 6,859 cases were pending at the Tahsildar court of Bangalore Regional Division. "Because of this, the public is flocking to the tahsildar's office every day. About 4,000 cases should be settled within the next four months," he told officials.

He took officials concerned to task for pendency of cases across the state, with as many as 45,482 cases pending in Assistant Commissioner courts. They include Doddaballapur (5,683 cases), Bangalore South (6,129), Bangalore North (6,035), Chikkaballapur (3,014), Chitradurga (1,374), Davangere (152), Honnali (456), Kolar (5,112), Ramanagara (4,210), Shivamogga (613), Sagar (411), Tumakuru (7,354), Madhugiri (3,167) and Tiptur (742). A total of 10,065 cases are pending in DC courts -- Bangalore Rural (1,384), Bangalore City (4,974), Chikkaballapur (429), Chitradurga (1,711), Davangere (81), Kolar (102), Ramanagara (501), Shivamogga (73) and Tumakuru (697).

"If higher officials themselves do not settle cases in their courts, how can you expect effective work from tahsildars? Don't set others a bad example," he told DCs and ACs.

Will dispose of files in 2 days

E-office was implemented from August 15 to get used to technology and facilitate quick disposal of files, by abandoning the old letter business. "Henceforth, correspondence from all AC and DC offices of the state to the government should be done through e-office. If the files come to my login in e-office, I dispose of them in two days," Byre Gowda said, adding that he will not accept physical letters.

Pushing hard to complete suburban rail project, says Vaishnaw

Despite the change of guard in Karnataka, the Centre's commitment to complete the Bengaluru Suburban Railway Project (BSRP) is "absolutely intact and fully in place", said Railway Minister Ashwini Vaishnaw. Fielding queries from the media after the launch of the 3D-printed post office, Vaishnaw said, "We are going to push very hard and request the state government to complete the suburban railway and also further expand it... The booming growth of Bengaluru will need more transportation in future." Stating that the focus was on completing the BSRP as early as possible, he added, "This should be seen as above politics for the citizens of Bengaluru so that it gets a world-class transportation service." To a query on the slow pace of Vande Bharat trains in Karnataka, he said, "Speed of a train depends on the train and the speed capacity of the tracks. The tracks have to be upgraded for a faster train to run. Last year, we upgraded almost 4,000 km of track, where the speed potential is 110-130 kmph. In some areas, we have already reached 160 kmph."

City gets India's first 3D-printed post office

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

INDIA'S first Post Office built using 3D-printing technology, at Cambridge Layout in the city, was declared open by Communications and Railway Minister Ashwini Vaishnaw on Friday. Built in just 43 days, the structure cost Rs 26 lakh to erect, which is 40 per cent lesser than the conventional construction process, and was constructed by Larsen & Tourbo Limited, under the technological guidance of IIT Madras. It has a built-up area of 1,021 sq ft.

Speaking after the virtual launch from the General Post Office, Vaishnaw lauded the giant strides India has made in new technologies like 4G, 5G, and Vande Bharat Express, through indigenous talent. "The noise level in the Vande Bharat is 100 times less than that inside an aeroplane. While the Shinkansen (Japanese bullet train) takes 54 seconds to achieve an acceleration of 100 kmph, the Vande Bharat does it in 52 seconds," he said. Decisive leadership in the country was responsible for the progress in all segments, he added.

Stating that Bengaluru always presents a new picture of India, the minister said, "The 3D-printed post office building is the spirit with which India is progressing today," he added.

Bengaluru Central MP PC Mohan said, "It is a matter of great pride that the first 3D-printed post office was released in the city, famed as Silicon Valley for its prowess in the IT and technology sectors."

Prof Manu Santhanam, Dean of Industrial Consultancy and Sponsored Research, IIT Madras, said many startups are entering the 3D-printing space. "It will speed up construction," he said.

Govt releases list of new Palike wards

THE government also released the list of new wards, which included Dr Puneet Rajkumar, Garebhavipalya, Mangamanapalya, Hosa Road, Munekollal and Belatur. Palike officials said the new list of wards is on the civic body's website.

While former Congress corporators said it is too early for them to comment on the reduction of wards from 243 to 225, BJP corporators expressed their displeasure. CK Ramamurthy, Jayanagar MLA, said, "I had approached the court with regard to the delay in BBMP elections. Now that the Congress government has released the draft notification of 225 wards, many former corporators from BJP will not be able to contest the coming elections due to the unscientific delimitation process. The government has altered some areas favouring Congress. In a few days, the ward-wise reservation list will be released and many BJP aspirants will not be able to contest. Hence, I will approach the court for justice."

MAIN ARTERIAL ROAD

BDA takes control of 15 acres in NPKL

S LALITHA @Bengaluru

HIGH drama was witnessed at Nadaprabhu Kempegowda Layout (NPKL) on Friday, when the Bangalore Development Authority (BDA) took control of 15 acres of land required to complete the Main Arterial Road (MAR) which runs through the layout. This was land notified by BDA for acquisition, for which compensation had been given in the form of alternate land elsewhere. "Despite that, the owners refused to vacate the land for us. Their argument was that the registration of the newly allotted land in their names was not fully complete," said a top BDA official.

The Special Task Force of the BDA, engineers, land acquisition officials and local police had to bring bulldozers and raze the existing constructions or fencing before taking over the property. "We began at 9 am. There was enormous resistance initially from 10 families for half-an-hour and we had to take over the properties by force. We completed our operation by 5 pm," he said.

Another official said, "This road is crucial as it runs to 10.77 km and links Magadi Road and Mysuru Road. The work of laying the road is on in 7.71 km stretch of the road," another official said. Of that, a 2-km stretch is fully completed, but cannot be used properly the stretch is ready, he added.

Bengaluru Development Minister DK Shivakumar visited the layout recently and assured speedy completion of pending works here.

Shivakumar has asked study partners like Bangalore University, Indian Institute of Information Technology, RV College of Engineering and others to prepare a report on the suggestions and their implementation at the earliest.

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

19TH August : It's an Aquarian day, which is good for Aquarians, obviously! However, I have a great admiration for this sign's lively, intelligent and witty ways, so I think it's good for every one of us. We may try something new, something different, perhaps, an activity which we have always wanted to do, but never have, and which will expand our horizons in intriguing directions.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
There is a lighter atmosphere, yet certain planetary positions still possess quite a sting in the tail. If you've agreed to any social undertakings, you must be prepared to bear the cost. And if you can't afford it then you'd better find prosperous people to subsidise you!

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
There is a lighter atmosphere, yet certain planetary positions still possess quite a sting in the tail. If you've agreed to any social undertakings, you must be prepared to bear the cost. And if you can't afford it then you'd better find prosperous people to subsidise you!

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
As luck would have it, this could be a splendid day to sort out all holiday, leisure or travel plans, partly because something seems to have been overlooked. There is a high chance of diversions, delays and distractions along the way, so enjoy them!

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
Shopping expeditions are favoured, but only if you are prepared to spend whatever is necessary, perhaps more than you bargained for. Never has there been a time when it was more important to receive the right guarantees, and give someone else the reassurance they deserve.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
Your stars are still helping you along a positive path. In one sense they will soon be even more utterly incredible and wonderful, but as fate would have it this also means that you could have even more dropped on your plate. You will have to be super-efficient if you are to cope.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
Stay busy and keep active is the message. If you sit around and do nothing, you will only encourage strange fears and unrealistic hopes. The important consideration is what has really happened, not what might have been if only things had been different.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
At last the stars are positioned in favour of leisure and pleasure, although your way of letting your hair down seems to be different from other people's. Your favoured entertainments could be somewhat formal and traditional, though by no means lacking in excitement!

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
Pressures at home seem to be building up, which is a very good thing. Years of frustration may soon be dealt with at one go, but do realise that practical issues must come first. There is still some way to go before you can turn the tables on a rival, by the way.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
The general planetary disposition can still be exceptionally stressful, but its particular relationship to your sign is lively and controversial. Make a point of taking interesting trips and engaging in stimulating discussions, raising explosive issues.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Your financial stars are strong, which means that even something as simple as a shopping trip can relieve the emotional tension. You are currently passing through a potentially extravagant phase, and the best purchases are completely outrageous.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
With lunar alignments working solidly on your side you are in a strong position, but you should watch out for over-confidence. It is difficult to know where to draw the line, but you may try to temper excess with caution, however impossible that seems!

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
It's definitely a day to allow a little time for quiet contemplation. Nobody has the right to intrude on your private space or to tell you what to believe. Social and romantic trends remain bright, so why don't you take advantage of all invitations?

METRO TO E-CITY LIKELY TO MISS ITS DEC DATE

Reason: Supply of the first batch of six-car train sets for the RV Road-Bommasandra Line (Yellow Line) has been deferred to mid-October

S LALITHA @Bengaluru

THE wait to take a Metro to Electronics City gets longer. Reason: The supply of the first batch of six-car train sets for the RV Road-Bommasandra Line (Yellow Line) has been deferred to mid-October. This in turn could delay the proposed launch of the Reach-5 line by December this year.

Titagarh Wagons, which has its manufacturing unit near Kolkata, is set to supply 204 coaches (34 train sets) for the line while two train sets are to arrive from China. This follows its tie-up with China Railway Rolling Stock Corporation which was supposed to supply all the coaches initially as per its 2019 contract. Multiple deadlines have been missed.

A reliable source of the Bangalore Metro Rail Corporation Limited (BMRCL) told TNIE, "We got to know of the development only on Friday that the first set of train sets for the line will be supplied from China only by October 16. Train sets need to undergo testing and trial run for a minimum of three months. We had planned for their arrival in September so that the launch of the Yellow Line could happen in December. It is not possible now."

Asked about the reasons for the delay, a senior official said, "Atleast 35% of the components of the train sets are imported from elsewhere. Hence, a delay in their supply will affect delivery of the rolling stock on time."

Asked about the status of the ongoing works on the Reach-5 Line, an official said that for the stretch between RV Road and Central Silk Board, civil and station works will be completed by September while signalling and traction works are progressing. "The civil works are fully ready in the 16 stations between Silk Board and Bommasandra," he added.

The critical Electronics City figures on the route along with South India's tallest road-cum-rail flyover which is ready but cannot be launched as ramps are yet to be built.

Meanwhile, Chief Public Relations Officer BL Yashvanth Chavan said, "There will be a continuous delivery of 2 or 3 train sets per month. All trains will be received by end of July 2024."

Accused attacks cops, shot at

ENS @Bengaluru

A 25-year-old accused in a gang rape and murder case was shot in the leg by the Jigani police after he allegedly tried to attack the police staff in a bid to escape.

Somashekhar alias Soma, a resident of Byatarayanadoddi near Bannerghatta, is the accused who was shot at. Police constable Madappa sustained injuries as Soma attacked him with a dagger. The police said a 38-year-old woman, who was a resident of Byatarayanadoddi, was gang raped and murdered by three men on Saturday late evening. The police had formed special teams to nab the accused and three persons - Soma, Harish (33) and Jayanth (20), were arrested.

"On Friday morning, Soma was taken to Hakki Pikki Colony near Byatarayanadoddi for spot mahazar when he picked up a dagger that was lying and attacked the police staff leaving constable Madappa injured. Police inspector Manjunath fired a warning shot in the air but Soma tried to escape. Hence, he was shot in the leg. Both the accused and the injured constable were rushed to hospital," the police said.

Investigations revealed that the accused trio, all residents of Byatarayanadoddi, were smoking weed at a grove when they found a woman passing by along with her nephew, a toddler. The accused allegedly dragged her inside the grove, where they allegedly gang raped and murdered her. The incident came to light when the parents went looking for the child and the woman.

Soma was earlier arrested in a murder case, police said.

PALIKE LAB FIRE

Injured BBMP chief engineer put on ventilator

MOHAMMED YACOOB @ Bengaluru

IT is a week since the fire at the Quality Control Lab of the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike's (BBMP) head office. It is learnt that Chief Engineer, Quality Control Cell, Shivakumar is critical and is on ventilator since Thursday night.

Bengaluru Medical College Research Institute (BMCRI) Dean and Director Dr Ramesh Krishna also confirmed the same.

Dr Krishna said while all are stable, a few are recovering well. He added that Shivakumar was critical and was put on ventilator support. The hospital will also begin skin-grafting for all the injured, after they have recovered.

"All those who suffered burn injuries at the BBMP head office were rushed to Victoria Hospital's burns ward on August 11. Most of the victims have suffered burns on their face and hands. They were stable and were advised to consume a normal diet, however, a liquid one. A few days ago, chief engineer Shivakumar and lab operator Jyothi were put on a nasal catheter. But now, Shivakumar requires ventilator support," Dr Krishna said, reiterating that Shivakumar remains critical, but is stable.

The dean added that since it is burn injuries, the nature of the injuries is different. They are deep and take time to heal. Once the healing process is complete, skin graft and transplantation on victims who suffered severe injuries would start.

Meanwhile, the Halasuru Gate Police, which registered a case following the incident, is awaiting a response from BBMP Engineer-In-Chief BS Prahalad. Prahalad was also served a police notice a few days ago, seeking information about safety measures at the lab, staff strength, CCTV footage and others details. Prahalad is yet to appear before in the investigation officer.

"The higher officials may not face any problem, but the others, who were summoned for questioning, and were arrested and released on station bail, are likely to face problems as negligence is suspected on their part," said a senior police official.

Going by police sources, Anand and Swamy, Assistant Executive Engineers, and Group D employee Suresh, who were testing road asphalt materials and using benzene — a highly inflammable chemical content -- at the time of the incident are likely to face the heat.

In racist attack, Sikkim man beaten up in city

PRAVEEN KUMAR @ Bengaluru

IN what appears to be a racially motivated attack, a 30-year-old man from Sikkim was beaten up badly by three miscreants at Electronics City on Wednesday.

The victim has been identified as K Dinesh Subba, a native of West Sikkim and a resident of Electronics City, Phase I. He works as a waiter at a hotel in Neeladri Nagar. He was discharged from a hospital with nine stitches on his head and face.

The attack took place between 3am and 4am when Subba was returning home after partying with his brother and friends.

Seeing Subba on PCR Garden Road at Doddathoguru, the miscreants called him "Chinese, Chinese". When Subba replied that he was an Indian from Sikkim, they attacked him. Security guards of a nearby building alerted the police. Subba has filed a complaint at the Electronics City police station. Subba's brother-in-law Deepak Dorji from Arunachal Pradesh, who has been living in the city since 2009, told TNIE that the attack was racially motivated. Subba has been advised bed rest. "Three miscreants attacked my brother-in-law with a blunt weapon. His wedding anniversary was on August 14 and he threw a party for his brother and friends on the night of August 15. After the party, everybody went home and Subba was just 100 metres away from his house when he was attacked. The miscreants, who were riding a two-wheeler, hit Subba with a blunt weapon after calling him Chinese," Dorji said.

Subba came to Bengaluru last December. He lives with his wife and newborn son. His wife is a homemaker, Dorji said. "The accused are yet to be arrested. We are investigating the case," said a police officer. A case of causing hurt by dangerous weapons, wrongful restraint and other Sections of IPC has been registered against the miscreants.

Palike looks at regularising lab operator Jyothi's job

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

AFTER learning that Quality Control Lab (QCL) operator Jyothi, who is being treated for burn injuries at Victoria Hospital, is a contract employee with a low salary, the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) is now contemplating regularising her job. BBMP Chief Commissioner Tushar Girinath is said to have discussed this issue with Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar and is awaiting a green signal.

The BBMP is contemplating this move of making Jyothi a permanent Palike staffer, after her marriage was cancelled following the tragedy. With her face and hands burnt, the Palike wants to appoint her on compassionate grounds.

A total of nine people were injured in the fire accident at the QCL in the BBMP head office at NR Square. Among the injured, two Chief Engineers — Shivakumar and Jyothi — suffered grievous burn injuries. All the staff are being treated in the ICU as directed by DyCM and Bengaluru Development Minister DK Shivakumar. The senior officers of the corporation have already held a meeting and have taken a decision in this regard.

BBMP Officers and Employees' Association President Amruth Raj said that he was also informed about the development and the association would welcome such a decision. "From the association, we have demanded Rs 10 lakh as compensation and if the Palike appoints Jyothi on a permanent basis, we will welcome it. There was also information about her marriage being cancelled and if she is made a permanent staffer, it would offer some solace to Jyothi and her family," said Raj.

8 held for extorting ₹15L from tea vendor who won ₹25L at casino

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

EIGHT persons were arrested in connection with the case in which a 32-year-old roadside tea vendor, from Hanumanthanagar, who had won Rs 25 lakh at a Goa casino was kidnapped and robbed of Rs 15 lakh.

The police have managed to recover Rs 10 lakh from the accused who were arrested from Shirdi in Maharashtra.

The accused had kidnapped the tea vendor TM Tilak Manikanta and extorted Rs 15 lakh after they found out that he had won Rs 25 lakhs while gambling.

The gang had fled the city after they realised the police were searching for them. The accused have been identified as Rahul alias Pandu, Karthik alias Psycho, Mohan, Nischal Gowda, Manoj Kumar, Eshwar, Ram Kumar, and Varun. They had escaped to Goa from the city, and then to Shirdi via Mumbai.

Of the accused, Karthik and Rahul are rowdy sheeters at the Banashankari police station and VV Puram police stations respectively.

It may be recalled that the victim had gone to Goa with his friends taking Rs 4 lakh in cash. Manikanta, after winning Rs 25 lakh at the casino, returned to the city. His WhatsApp status about winning money landed him in trouble.

He was kidnapped by the accused on August 5 and was extorted of Rs 15 lakh. They then released him after taking him to a resort in Nelamangala. The next day he filed a complaint at the Hanumantha Nagar police station.

HC junks visa extension plea by Chinese woman

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court dismissed a petition filed by Hu Xiaolin, a Chinese national residing at Whitefield in Bengaluru, seeking direction to the Foreigners Regional Registration Office (FRRO) to accept applications filed by her and her minor daughter for visa extension.

The petitioner — Hu Xiaolin and her husband Anas Ahmed — were accused in a case registered by the Cyber Crime Police, CID, under provisions of offences punishable under Section 66D of the Information Technology Act, 420 of the IPC and Sections 21 and 23 read with 3 and 5 of the Banning of Unregulated Deposit Scheme Act.

The FIR was registered against them on behalf of Razorpay Software Private Ltd. It lodged the complaint against 12 entities of merchants.

They allegedly defrauded Razorpay by using computer resources to deviate the business from the original category registered by them, and started routing their transactions to collect payments from a different business called 'Power Bank', an app listed on Google Play Store. The petitioners, after accepting the investment, neither paid the interest nor returned the principal amount.

Counsel for the petitioner contended that his client was absolutely innocent and falsely implicated in the offences. She had nothing to do with the offences in which her husband was implicated either, and investigation is yet to be completed. That being the position, the authorities ought to have granted an extension of visa. He added that his client and minor child be permitted to visit China to see her aged and ailing father.

The counsel, representing FRRO, opposed the petition, contending that grant of a visa is not a matter of course, and pertains to the sovereignty of the nation which treats such requests with absolute discretion.

After uproar, K'taka govt withdraws order stopping funds to temples

Proves Siddu's anti-Hindu stance: Yatnal; Karnataka has over 34,000 endowment temples

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

FOLLOWING a backlash from various quarters, including the Opposition BJP, the Karnataka government on Friday withdrew the Muzrai Department's order that stopped grants to state-owned temples for development works.

Karnataka has over 34,000 endowment temples. Of them, 175 are Class A temples, with an annual revenue of above Rs 25 lakh, 158 temples are Class B with a revenue between Rs 5 lakh and Rs 25 lakh, while others are Class C with annual revenue of under Rs 5 lakh. On August 14, the department had issued a circular to stop grants to all the temples under its purview for development works.

It also stressed to stop work if the work has not commenced or less than 50% of the work is complete.

The order was widely opposed by various sections. On social media platform 'X', senior BJP MLA Basanagouda Patil Yatnal said "it proved CM Siddaramaiah's anti-Hindu stance".

"The government, which had given crores of grants under the pretext of waqf and welfare of minorities, has now withheld grants to temples...," the legislator tweeted.

Transport and Endowment Minister Ramalinga Reddy told TNIE that he had only sought the status of various ongoing works in temples. "I had asked officials to furnish details of ongoing works and work orders for which funds are not released. I had sought this as we have to seek the Finance Department's nod for funds. Our intention is not to stop works or funds to temples. If needed, we are ready to give more funds," he added.

RELEASE FUNDS OR FACE STIR, SAYS JOLLE

BELAGAVI: Former Women and Child Development Minister Shashikala Jolle threatened to launch an agitation over the halt of funds to the temples by the state government from its Muzrai Department. She said that the government had earlier released funds for temples. The previous BJP government did not release the second instalment because of the model code of conduct during elections she said. HEBBAR TO RETURN TO CONG, WAITING FOR 'RIGHT TIME'

SUBHASH CHANDRA NS
@ Yellapur (Uttara Kannada)

REBEL MLAs who left the Congress to join the BJP, seem to be in the mood to return. Yellapur MLA Arabail Shivaram Hebbar, who began the migration trend in 2018, is set to rejoin his mother party.

Hebbar's close aides said he has almost completed the groundwork to rejoin the Congress, and has even consulted his followers about his move. Having met KPCC President and DyCM DK Shivakumar, he is now waiting for the right time to move back.

Hebbar, who joined the BJP in 2019 along with Congress leaders Ramesh Jarkiholi, ST Somashekar, Muniratna, Byrathi Basavaraj, BC Patil, H Vishwanath, K Sudhakar, MTB Nagaraj and others, made it to the cabinet. As the only minister from Uttara Kannada, he became district in-charge minister during B S Yediyurappa's regime, and was made Haveri in-charge minister when Basavaraj Bommai was chief minister.

Local BJP cadre had alleged that he was not taking them into confidence, and this was evident during Kadambotsava 2023, where he didn't receive any support from BJP cadre, while Congress workers went aggressively against him. They posted his pictures in Banavasi on the lines of the 'PayCM' campaign.

According to sources in the Congress, he tried hard to join the party before elections, but it was put on hold. "Recently, he met DK Shivakumar and is set to join," said a Congress leader.

A video is also doing the rounds of Hebbar meeting his fo lowers in Mundgod. Though his supporters reportedly urged him to rejoin the Congress, he was also told to tread cautiously.

Meanwhile, the BJP is not unaware of his actions. Hebbar's recent allegation that BJP leaders tried to defeat him in the assembly elections has widened the rift between him and the saffron party. Hebbar is reportedly under observation, and the party is already contemplating fielding an unexpected candidate against him. The name of former Speaker Vishveshwar Hegde Kageri, who lost in Sirsi, is doing the rounds. Hebbar refused to comment.

No one is leaving, says Yediyurappa

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

FOUR years ago, legislators who had switched from the Congress to the BJP and helped former chief minister B S Yediyurappa form the government — though defection is unacceptable under law — are now looking at a return to the grand old party. There is talk that the legislators, especially ST Somashekar and Shivaram Hebbar, are rejoining the Congress. "What will happen to the Bombay Boys? I have spoken to the state BJP chief about this and he assured me that there is no development of this kind," said Union minister Pralhad Joshi.

Speaking to the media, former CM Yediyurappa said, "No one will leave. One or two may be thinking they want to leave, but no one will leave. We will speak to all of them."

Former CM Bommai said, "I have spoken to Muniratna, Somashekar and Hebbar, and I am in touch with them. None is speaking about leaving the party. There are certain issues and the state president is apprised about these and will take action regarding these issues. The Congress is spreading these rumours to divert attention from its corruption, nepotism and challenges within the party. It is far from the truth."

Yediyurappa saidt he government had failed on all fronts. "This government is a pauper government, there is no money for development. MLAs have been assured Rs 50 lakh, but where is the money? We will protest on August 23 to highlight the government's failure ."

Anything can happen..., says Shivakumar

ENS @ Bengaluru

DEPUTY CM DK Shivakumar, who is also KPCC chief, hinted that the doors of the Congress are open to those who want to join it. "Anything can happen in politics," Shivakumar said when asked if the Congress will accommodate those who want to return to it. He was referring to those legislators who had quit the Congress and joined the BJP in 2019 leading to the collapse of the JDS-Congress coalition government.

The KPCC chief also denied reports of a few JDS MLAs getting in touch with him to join the Congress. On allegations made by the Congress that a few BJP leaders were trying to topple the government, he said, "They (BJP) are trying to prove that they are politically alive."

On the committee headed by retired judge Nagamohan Das to probe 40% bribery allegations made by a few contractors against the previous BJP government, Shivakumar said, "I will not comment on this. The CM will reply. Investigation is in progress."

On NEP, Shivakumar said the government is committed to withdrawing it as promised to the people. He criticised the hurried implementation of NEP without adequate infrastructure by the previous BJP government. "Why was NEP implemented only in Karnataka? Why not in MP, UP, Haryana and Gujarat? where the BJP is ruling. Wasn't Karnataka's education system right?", he asked. He indicated a willingness to consider the positive aspects of NEP if they align with Karnataka's educational goals.

WATER RELEASE

Not done to please ally DMK: DyCM

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

DEPUTY Chief Minister DK Shivakumar on Friday said that Karnataka has not released water to Tamil Nadu keeping in mind the alliance with the ruling DMK there which is part of the I.N.D.I.A bloc of 26 opposition parties led by the Congress.

"We have respected the court's order and obeyed it. Also, we have requested the Cauvery Water Management Authority to review its decision to protect the interest of our farmers," he told reporters here. Highlighting that previous governments had also adhered to court orders on release of water, he expressed his commitment to maintaining a balanced approach and underscored the need to work collectively to address water shortage for both agricultural and drinking purposes.

"We can give you the statistics of how much water the Janata Dal and BJP governments had released in the past. But I don't want to do politics in this matter. We have thought of calling an all-party meeting on the Cauvery, Mahadayi and Krishna issues. Although a strong government is in power at the Centre, the issues of Mahadayi and Krishna are not settled," he added.

Meanwhile, former CM and JDS leader HD Kumaraswamy charged the Congress government for unilaterally deciding to release Cauvery water to TN. He said no other governments in the past had shown a dictatorial attitude on the issue but the present government was acting on its own without taking opposition or farmers into confidence. Further, he said that DMK, which is in power in Tamil Nadu, was Congress' ally and DCM DK Shivakumar, who organised the Mekedatu rally, should convince Tamil Nadu CM MK Stalin and implement the Mekedatu reservoir project. "To hide its blunder, the government is accusing the opposition of politicising the Cauvery water issue," he said.

Cong leaders angry with Teesta Setalvad episode at IISc

ENS @ Bengaluru

THE Congress has expressed anger over the incident involving civil rights activist Teesta Setalvad, who was not allowed to speak at the Indian Institute of Science, where she had been invited by some students and professors, on Thursday. Congress MLC BK Hariprasad, who was a former governing board member of IISc, said, "I am shocked with the treatment meted out to Teesta Setalvad. If she had said something against the Constitution, I would be the first one to stop her. She is only saying things to foster communal amity. How can a premier institution like IISc prevent her from speaking about constitutional values which foster brotherhood among different religions?"

Minister Eshwar Khandre said, "This kind of execution of authority is unacceptable... How can anyone be prevented from speaking about communal harmony?" MLC Saleem Ahmed said, "Teesta Setalvad is a Padma Shri awardee. In spite of the Centre hounding her, she has not been held guilty ... She is speaking on communal harmony, which is the need of the hour."

EGGS BACK TWICE A WEEK IN MID-DAY MEALS TILL CLASS 10: MINISTER

BENGALURU: To ensure that children have nutritious food in government schools, eggs, chikkis and bananas will be distributed twice a week in government and aided schools as supplementary nutrition, said School Education and Literacy Minister Madhu Bangarappa, who relaunched the scheme at Government Higher Primary School in Hosahalli, Mandya on Friday. The scheme will be extended to students of Classes 9 and 10. Over 60 lakh students are set to be benefitted with 1.2 crore eggs provided a week, Bangarappa said. Bananas and chikkis are being offered as alternatives to eggs. Earlier, due to budget constraints because of rising egg prices, the distribution of eggs, bananas, and chikkis as supplementary nutrition was reduced from twice a week to once after the Assembly elections. Under the Midday Meal Scheme (MMS), eggs were introduced as supplementary nutrition to combat malnutrition among students in government schools. ENS

Four Dalit ministers flay nomination of ex-ED officer to Council

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

FOUR Dalit ministers in the Siddaramaiah Cabinet, including Home Minister Dr G Parameshwara, writing to the Congress high command opposing the nomination of former Directorate of Enforcement officer Sudham Das to the Legislative Council has come as an embarrassment to the party in the state.

In a letter to AICC president Mallikarjun Kharge, the four ministers, including KH Muniyappa, RB Timmapur and Dr HC Mahadevappa, have said that "they must be taken into confidence before finalising the names for nomination to the Upper House".

Das, who joined the Congress just before the Assembly elections, has been considered for the position under the social service quota.

"...so far, neither the state leaders nor the high command have discussed this matter with us. We terribly felt let down. We strongly urge that regional balance and social engineering shall be adhered to in selecting the candidates," the four ministers stated in the letter. They raised their objection to the nomination of Das as his contribution to the party is almost "nil".

Meanwhile, a Congress leader close to the high command said that the top brass has already taken a decision and there will be no going back.

Meanwhile, the Opposition BJP too hit out at the government over the issue. "The Dalit leaders have finally woken up in the state @INCKarnataka government. @siddaramaiah wrote a long letter to the High Command questioning the anti-Dalit move. The KPCC President @DKShivakumar complained against the contractor who wrote the letter and got him interrogated. It is curious as to which station he is now complaining about this open letter", tweeted the BJP.

The Congress has finalised the names of Das and former ministers Umashree and MR Seetharam and sent it to the Governor for this approval.

THE Janata Dal (Secular) has formed a 21-member core committee headed by former minister and Chamundeshwari MAL GT Devegowda. The committee is tasked with strengthening the party ahead of the 2024 Lok Sabha elections and polls to local bodies.

"The core-committee will hold a stat tour from August 20 to September 30 and submit a report, based on which the office bearers will be changed," JDS state president CM Ibrahim said.

Former CM HD Kumaraswamy held KPCC chief DK Shivakumar responsible for the alleged irregularities in the NICE project. Reacting to MP DK Suresh's allegations, he said his entire family would retire from politics if he proved that any of the family members had land in the project. "Who signed the framework agreement making changes to the original agreement? His brother (Shivakumar) was the urban development minister then," he siad, accusing the DK Brothers of trying to loot 2,000 acres.

Issue of new BPL cards on hold, existing data to be verified

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

IN a move to monitor the misuse of the Anna Bhagya scheme, the Karnataka government will not issue new applications for BPL cards for some time, as the authorities are verifying the existing card-holders, said Food and Civil Supplies Minister KH Muniyappa, during a review meeting with officials in Bengaluru on Friday.

He told the media that the authorities have transferred Rs 170 per person, instead of 5kg rice, to more than 1 crore card-holders. There are 28 lakh card-holders which are invalid for various reasons, including that bank account was not linked to Aadhaar, deaths in the family were not been updated, or e-KYC was not done, besides other reasons.

Department officials said they had got details from RTOs on white board cars.

"Many BPL card-holders have luxury cars, houses and other facilities. Even government employees have got this benefit. These cards will be cancelled," official sources said.

Muniyappa, however, said he has directed officials to sort out issues of genuine beneficiaries who have not linked their Aadhaar cards to bank accounts. Officials will identify heads of families and enable beneficiaries who don't have bank accounts to open Indian Postal Payment Bank accounts, he said. In case of births, provision has been made on the website to add names online. He directed officials to have a separate server, if there are technical or slow server issues due to heavy load.

Muniyappa said good quality grains should reach the beneficiaries, and officials should ensure quality rice, jowar and ragi, or action will be taken against them. He directed officials to check grains in godowns, and only if quality is good, it should be released to PDS shops.

The minister further said that they are trying to procure rice from Andhra Pradesh and Telangana, and there will be some clarity on it in the next ten days. "Once we get the grains, we will start supplying rice as promised. Till then, we will continue to pay money till they procure rice," he added.

Deboosting op a success; Vikram, Pragyan doing well

Next week crucial for Chandrayaan 3 mission, second deboosting on August 23

PURAN CHOUDHARY @Bengaluru

INDIA'S mission to the Moon inches closer to the lunar surface, as the soft landing day of August 23 approaches. On Friday, in a significant advancement, the Lander Module (LM) underwent a successful deboosting operation.

ISRO, in a statement said, "Lander Module successfully underwent a deboosting operation that reduced its orbit to 113km x 157km." Vikram Lander and Pragyan Rover are in good health, according to the space agency. The deboosting operation is performed to slow down the module to allow it to enter a slightly lower orbit of the Moon. The operation performed on Friday was one of the two deboosters. "The second deboosting operation is scheduled for August 20, 2023, around 0200 hrs IST," ISRO informed on platform X. The coming week will be crucial for India's ambitious Chandrayaan 3 mission.

The first debooster process places LM in an orbit where the perilune (closest point to the Moon) is 30km and apolune (farthest point from the Moon) is 100km, according to reports.

Latest images of Moon

ISRO also shared images recorded by Vikram Lander on August 15 and August 17, after the lander separated from the propulsion module and completed another manoeuvre. The stellar images were taken by the Lander Imager (LI) Camera-1, said the space agency. "Moon as captured by the Lander Position Detection Camera (LPDC) on August 15, 2023," said the official handle of Chandrayaan- 3 Mission on X (LVM3-M4/Chandrayaan 3 Mission).

The images and videos show different craters of the Moon. One of the images showed the Giordano Bruno crater, the youngest large crater on the Moon. The videos also revealed two other craters -- Harkhebi J crater and Fabry. On August 23, India is set to make history by being the fourth country to land on the Moon.

LCA Navy can operate day and night

"THE aircraft demonstrated 18 arrested landings and ski-jump take-offs from INS Vikramaditya in January 2020, including hot refuelling capability. Recently, LCA Navy participated in the carrier trials from INS Vikrant and performed 10 ski-jump take-offs and arrested landings on February 6. LCA Navy has completed the landmark achievement of being the first indigenous fighter aircraft landing on the indigenous aircraft carrier, INS Vikrant," DRDO said in a statement.

Equipped with state-of-the-art technologies such as fly-by-wire flight control system, glass cockpit and advanced mechanical systems, LCA Navy can be operated seamlessly day and night. It features advanced hands-free ski-jump take-off and landing flight control modes. LCA Navy Prototypes are carrier compatible and can operate with Air-to-Air weapons for combat missions.

"The new prototype NP5 will soon undertake field and carrier operations from INS Vikramaditya and INS Vikrant. LCA Navy NP5 incorporates all improvements identified during the testing of NP1 and NP2 is a production ready aircraft," the statement added.

The addition of NP5 aircraft to the LCA Navy prototype fleet will help accelerate flight testing activities which will provide designers vital inputs towards the design and development of the Twin Engine Deck Based Fighter (TEDBF), the country's prestigious futuristic carrier aircraft programme. LCA Navy can also serve as an effective training platform for Indian Navy pilots for operations from the aircraft carriers, the release said.

T'gana HC takes note of Ajeya Kallam's plea

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Hyderabad

JUSTICE K Lakshman, presiding over the Telangana High Court, made a noteworthy ruling on Friday by overriding objections from the registry.

He issued a directive to assign a regular case number to the petition submitted by Ajeya Kallam, a former IAS Officer currently serving as the Chief Advisor to Andhra Pradesh Chief Minister Y.S. Jagan Mohan Reddy. Kallam's petition asserts that the CBI inaccurately recorded his statement during its inquiry into the murder case of Y.S. Vivekananda Reddy.

The CBI has compiled a substantial collection of statements, all of which have been submitted to the court. Statements from notable figures, including celebrities, have recently been revealed. The CBI has also summoned Sharmila as a witness in connection with the case. In the midst of these proceedings, Ajeya Kallam, Chief Advisor to the Andhra Pradesh Chief Minister, lodged a petition with the Telangana High Court. Kallam clarified that he never informed the CBI about Bharti's purported call to Chief Minister Jagan. He implored the court to expunge his statement from the charge sheet of the Viveka murder case and further requested an order mandating a re-examination of his statement by the CBI.

According to Ajeya Kallam's submission, his statement was recorded by the CBI on April 29, 2023. Allegations have arisen that the CBI altered the statement's contents in the charge sheet, deviating from his original statement. Kallam denied discussing the matter with anyone other than the investigating authorities.

Shakti hits inter-state KSRTC services

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Mysuru

EVEN as the introduction of Shakthi scheme which enables free bus travel for women in the Karnataka State Road Transport Corporation (KSRTC) buses, receiving huge appreciation from the women folks, it has hit the inter-state KSRTC services causing inconvenience to regular commuters and tourists.

The KSRTC interstate bus service from Gudlupet to the neighbouring Kerala and Tamil Nadu states is witnessing a sharp decline in the number of services which has gone down to just one from eleven. Service of two buses that would ply between Gundlupet and Kozhikode, two buses from Gundlupet to Ooty and three buses from Gundlupet to Coimbatore have been stopped. Besides this, two buses were plying between Gundlupet to Kalpetta in Wayanad district which is represented in the Lok Sabha by Congress leader Rahul Gandhi. Now one service has been withheld following the launch of Shakthi scheme.

The reduction in the number of services has caused inconvenience to people plying on these routes. Many are now depending on private buses, cars and even goods truck.

Begging racket busted in Hyd, 23 detained

HYDERABAD: A begging mafia was detected in the city, where the organiser Anil Pawar was arrested and 23 daily wage beggars were detained and later sent to rescue homes. An officer said, "The accused, including the beggars, belong to the community named Pardi from Karnataka. Currently 23 beggars involved in the racket have been identified. 60-70 members are still out there on the lanes spread across the city including places like Yellamma Temple in Balkampet, Ameerpet, etc.

Environment is conducive to invest in Karnataka: CM

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

CHIEF Minister Siddaramaiah said that there is a conducive environment for investment in Karnataka and there is an opportunity to invest in Tumakuru, Davanagere, and other Tier II cities as well. He held discussions on various issues with Christopher W Hodges, Consul General of the US Consulate in Chennai, on Friday.

Karnataka is the second highest tax-paying state in the country and has an investor-friendly ecosystem. The law and order situation is in place and skilled human resources are available. In this background, the CM extended an invitation to make more investments in the state. The CM promised to provide all necessary support and cooperation for opening American Consulate in Bengaluru.

Dedicated platform

Large and Medium Industries Minister MB Patil said on Friday that a dedicated platform would be constituted to facilitate investment by American companies in the state. Speaking at an event organised by the American Chamber of Commerce in India (AMCHAM- Karnataka Chapter) he stated that more and more U.S. companies are coming forward to invest in Karnataka.

Patil said that proposals worth Rs 40,000 crore investments have been received after the new government assumed office in the state and added that proposals worth another Rs 60,000 crore are in the pipeline. Minister also informed that the 'Invest Karnataka Forum' (IKF) would be reconstituted and a 'Strategic Investments Committee' would be formed to facilitate FDI inflow to the state.

NOTIFICATION

Whereas, upon considering the reports of the Director General of Police, CID Special Units and Economic Offenses, Bangalore and after due investigation of the complaints of depositors it has come to the notice of the Government, that M/s Ishwarya Lakshmi Chits Pvt. Ltd., Bengaluru are involved in fraudulent transactions by clandestinely and illegally collecting deposits or money from the general public and thereafter have failed to return the same either after maturity or on demand made by the depositors or complainants with promised interest and other assured benefits and thereby have failed to render the services promised to them.

And whereas, it has further come to the notice of the Government that M/s Ishwarya Lakshmi Chits Pvt. Ltd., Bengaluru and people associating with them have been acquiring lands, movable and immovable properties, cash and others from and out of the deposits or money so collected, from the depositors or complainants and thereby deviating from the intended purposes of accepting the deposits or money.

And whereas, the Government has reason to believe that the actions of M/s Ishwarya Lakshmi Chits Pvt. Ltd., Bengaluru and people associating with them are acting in and detrimental to the interest of the depositors or complainants whose intention was to defraud the innocent depositors, and it has become necessary to protect the interest of the depositors of the M/s Ishwarya Lakshmi Chits Pvt. Ltd., Bengaluru.

And whereas, now the Government after considering the report of the Competent Authority and satisfying itself about the urgent need to protect the interest of the depositors and in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of of interest of Depositors in Financial Establishment Act, 2004 (Karnataka Act 30 of 2005) hereby makes the following order, namely:

"ORDER"

Now therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of Section (3) of the Karnataka Protection of interest of Depositors in Financial Establishment Act, 2004 (Karnataka Act 30 of 2005), the Government under the circumstances stated above having satisfied that in order to protect the interest of depositors it is necessary to attach the movable and immovable properties believed to belong M/s Ishwarya Lakshmi Chits Pvt. Ltd., Bengaluru.

Therefore, the Government hereby attaches movable properties as specified in the Annexure to this order believed to have been acquired by the M/s Ishwarya Lakshmi Chits Pvt. Ltd., Bengaluru. either in its own name or in the name of any other person from and out of the deposits collected by the M/s Ishwarya Lakshmi Chits Pvt. Ltd., Bengaluru. and where it transpires that such money or such other properties of the said financial establishment, or the personal assets of the promoters, partners, directors, managers or members or any other person of the said financial establishment is not sufficient for the repayment of the deposits or interest or such other assured benefits to the depositors.

Note: All the aforesaid movable properties from the date of publication of this order in the Official Gazette, shall forthwith vest with the Competent Authority, who has been appointed by the Government, pending further orders from the Special Court.

By Order and in the name of the Governor of Karnataka

STEREOTYPES THAT DEFINE GLASS CEILING OR GLOSS OVER THEM AGAIN

A day after the 77th Independence Day, the Supreme Court released the 'Handbook on Combating Gender Stereotypes', which lists words and phrases steeped in gender stereotypes and cautions judges against using them in court orders. At the handbook launch, Chief Justice of India D Y Chandrachud cited several offensive words used for women in past court judgments. "These words are improper and have been used for women in court judgments. This handbook's objective is not to criticise those judgments or doubt them. This is just to underline how gender stereotypes are perpetuated inadvertently." He writes in the foreword, "Even when the use of stereotypes does not alter the outcome of a case, stereotypical language may reinforce ideas contrary to our constitutional ethos. Language is critical to the life of the law."

Stereotypes influence our thoughts and actions towards others, leading to discrimination and exclusion. While lauding the Supreme Court for taking this first step towards ending gender insensitivity in the judicial system, it is still to be seen whether it would correct societal attitudes towards women and sexual minorities. A society which strongly believes that women are responsible for inviting abuse upon themselves and should be thrown out of the house—or divorced for bearing a female child—has to travel light years even to start reading into the patriarchal propaganda that has thrived through generations at the cost of the woman. The list of stereotypes is long and jaded, like the minds which keep them alive: A woman's success cannot be her personal achievement. A woman army officer cannot be deployed at the border areas for fear of being kidnapped or abused by the enemy. A girl has to dress up in a certain way to protect herself from being teased and violated. A girl cannot turn down a boy for fear of being killed or maimed. A woman's final house is her marital home, whether or not she is safe there. A widow has to surrender her right to dress in colour and cannot stitch her life back together when her husband dies. A female foetus has no right to be born....

While the handbook aims to help judges discharge their responsibilities with greater commitment to the constitutional ethos, society needs to look inwards, question the status quo and be honest about how it perceives a woman's identity beyond her clothes. Women's safety has been a 'non-achievable priority', and this continues to haunt our criminal justice system.

PRIVATE INFLOWS BUOYED DESPITE HEADWINDS

India's decade-long wait for private investments seems to be finally ending. According to the RBI, FY23 saw a record capital outlay of ₹3.5 lakh crore—the highest since FY15. Of this, about 40% is likely to be spent this fiscal. If you include the amount corporates raised via internal sources, FDI, IPOs, FPOs and rights issues for capex purposes (which RBI didn't take into account), the total private investment will be even bigger. The cleaner balance sheets of banks and corporate borrowers, rising capacity utilisation, improved business outlook and demand conditions, and government interventions supporting investment activities indicate that the return of animal spirits could well be on the cards. The reason for optimism is also that FY23's investment was almost double the amount seen during FY22 at ₹1.96 lakh crore.

Following the twin balance sheet problem, the private investment cycle has slowed since FY14 and India's gross fixed capital formation (GFCF) fell dramatically. An RBI study released this week showed that the average share of envisaged capex to GFCF fell from 40.5% during FY1972–FY2011 to 15.5% during FY11–FY22. It also found that a 1% increase in private investment intentions leads to a 48 bps increase in gross fixed capital formation of private corporates. The revival signs of the current capex cycle seen since FY22 may indicate the investment climate picking up within the economy.

Usually, infrastructure sector projects comprising power, telecom, ports and airports account for a 60% share of total investment projects. But in FY23, while infrastructure retained its top slot, the composition saw a shift to roads and bridges leading the pack, thanks to the government's 'Bharatmala' push, unlike power and telecom that ended up in debt. State-wise, the top five, namely UP, Gujarat, Odisha, Maharashtra and Karnataka, together accounted for a 57.2% share, but there's a need for broad-based investments. Investment and consumption drive economies, but the latter is hit by inflation, which in turn is moderating corporate sales and holding back private investment. Though the uptick in private capital outlay is encouraging, the higher cost of capital due to monetary policy tightening, global uncertainties led by geopolitical tensions, and the risk of a slowdown in advanced economies could hamper investment activities.

QUICK TAKE

LENDING AN EAR

The Madras High Court holds that employees have a "right to vent". The court says employees have issues with the management, and nurturing grievances is natural. It's a healthy work culture to allow an escape valve for complaints so long as they remain civil. The well-known management principle must enter Indian law books. Welcoming openness and taking criticism promote a sense of psychological security at work. Venting allows the management to identify potential problems within and fix them in time. A venting employee is satisfied with being heard, which can improve productivity. Recognising workplace frustration is the first step to dispute resolution.

If people are scared of getting old, why celebrate birthdays? Another birthday means one has aged by another year. Typically, the young tend to look forward. The old tend to look back. The relatively young look at the road ahead, the old at the road travelled so far. In 2023, there is palpable pride in India's achievements since 1947, evident in every event centred around Independence Day. There is a sense of aspiration in Amrit Kaal for what must be achieved by 2047.

For my generation, born a few years after 1947, there is much to wonder and marvel at: the pace of technological change. And growing up as we did in an era of shortages, India's economic change is no less a marvel.

A few months ago, a friend and fellow economist, a few years older, received a lifetime award for his contributions. In his reminiscences, he spoke about studying without electricity, walking 10 km to school, cooking with coal and getting water from a well. There was no sense of deprivation or complaint in what he said. It was a statement of fact. I could identify since I went through the same. The applauding audience was mostly young, with looks of blank incomprehension. These weren't propositions they could identify with. This was an audience in Delhi; indeed, in India's villages, electricity, cooking gas, sanitation, sewage treatment, toilets and water are still issues. "Are" or "were"? This isn't binary, where everything changes overnight at the flick of a switch. "Are" hasn't become "were" everywhere. But as the basic necessities dashboards show, the past tense is becoming more common.

Basic necessities dashboards are based on administrative data, with incentives to overstate the case. A census or survey validates or invalidates. One such is the National Family Health Survey-5, conducted bang in the middle of Covid. UNDP's Multidimensional Poverty Index (MDPI) is more of a development index. It isn't quite what one means when one uses the word "poverty" as traditionally measured. MDPI as well as both the UNDP and Niti Aayog reports validate how the provision of physical and social infrastructure has improved and how changes have been remarkable in what used to be the BIMARU states (undivided Bihar, Madhya Pradesh, Rajasthan, Uttar Pradesh) years ago.

Why should the government provide physical and social infrastructure? There can be arguments about market failures, merit goods and positive externalities.

What happens to India is almost entirely a function of what happens to the states. If the states develop and prosper, as they are doing, so will the country

WHERE THERE IS A 'BIMAR' THERE IS MEDICATION

BIBEK DEBROY

Chairman, Economic Advisory Council to the PM

SOUMYADIP SINHA

First, irrespective of economic gains, such material and social infrastructure must be provided as a developmental goal. Second, there will be empowerment and economic gains, regardless of whether these can be easily quantified and measured. These are related points, not entirely separate ones. The more substantive point is that what happens to India is almost entirely a function of what happens to the states. If the states develop and prosper, as they are doing, so will India.

From a national income point of view, barring items like railways, defence and national highways, India's GDP growth is an aggregate of state GSDP (gross state domestic product) growth.

There are aspirations about India becoming a developed economy in 2047. When we were students, there were clear definitions of three kinds of countries in the world—developed, developing and least developed countries or LDCs. (The expression used was underdeveloped, but subsequently, developing became fashionable as it had a positive connotation of change, unlike the static underdeveloped.) Today, through WTO, we have a notion of LDC. But we no longer have definitions of "developed" or "developing".

The World Bank doesn't use such nomenclature anymore. Hence, what do we mean when we say we want India to be developed by 2047? Any such definition has to be in terms of per capita income, not the aggregate size of the economy. Whether aggregate size or per capita income, there can be conversions using official exchange rates or PPP (purchasing power parity) exchange rates. In the present context, we should have official exchange rates in mind.

The World Bank's current classification is low income for less than $1,085 (per capita), lower-middle income for $1,086 to $4,255, upper-middle income for $4,256 to $13,205, and high income for more than $13,205.

One could argue that India becomes developed if it moves to the high income category by 2047, that is, the per capita income crosses around $13,000. With a current figure of $2,200 or thereabouts, is that feasible? Growth has an exponential element. It blows up pretty fast, as exemplified in the story about the king and the minister who invented chess. (One grain of rice in the first square, doubled in the next and so on, for 64 squares.) Even then, what is the balance of probability? It is possible to play around with assumptions—real GDP growth, rate of population growth, exchange rate, inflation. Indeed, several people and organisations have done so. Of these, the tricky one is the real rate of growth. The other assumptions are fairly robust. (They won't vary that much from one projection to another.)

(a) What growth is likely? What kind of per capita income figure do we get in 2047?

(b) If per capita income has to be $13,000 in 2047, what growth rate do we need? These are two different ways of probing.

With (a), I think 6.5 to 7% is likely. (Others can be, and are, more optimistic.) This will only get us to around $10,000, which is upper-middle income, not high income. With (b), we need 7.5 to 8%. It seems like a minor difference in growth. But the exponential nature of the growth function means that the outcome blows up. (The human mind functions linearly and finds it challenging to comprehend the exponential.)

Most such exercises are, however, back-of-the-envelope messing around with calculators. There are only a few with proper production functions. (The celebrated Goldman Sachs BRICS paper had a production function.) However, I haven't seen a single one that estimates production functions for states and aggregates upwards to predict what will happen for the country. That's the way to get a proper answer since the slack is at the level of the states. The "bimar" and medication are both there.

BEATING THE HEAT A GLOBAL WORRY NOW

PRATIK KANJILAL

Editor of The India Cable

SPEAKEASY

A fortnight ago, researchers P V Rajesh and B N Goswami published an open-access paper in Earth's Future, showing that the footprint of the southeast monsoon, which used to stop short in the region of the Aravallis, leaving the Thar desert in the West parched, is slowly moving westwards.

This year, three districts of Rajasthan had to deal with a deluge for which they were not prepared. The phenomenon owes to the warming of the Indian Ocean. In the future, the desertification of northwest India, which has continued at least since Alexander's incursion, will be reversed. At the same time, east India, which is heavily watered by the monsoon, will get less rain. This could be the most visible climate change phenomenon of the coming decades—barring the loss of the polar ice pack—and take northwest India back to the climate of the Indus Valley Civilisation, when the region appears to have had a jungle, going by animal remains and the depiction of animals in Bronze Age artefacts.

Future generations could log 2023 as the year in which climate change graduated from the abstract (save the whales, save the mangroves) to the uncomfortably concrete (heat exhaustion, save me!). The last 12 months have been marked by arbitrary weather worldwide, but that's been normalised over the years. People's cars have gone swimming in flash floods—right from China and Pakistan to the US—but that's still the exception rather than the rule. Food inflation is biting hard as crops are damaged, and scalpers go into action, but that is not a novelty either. What's new is that phenomena commonplace in the Global South have reached the North, which is reacting fast to the new reality.

Last summer, Miami-Dade County in the US appointed the first 'chief heat officer' to raise public awareness about the effects of heat to the same level as awareness about severe storms. Bangladesh, which is very vulnerable to climate change because of its location at the mouth of the Ganga, followed suit in May this year, appointing Bushra Afreen.

In both places, the prior stress had been on meteorological and hydrological phenomena related to extreme weather. The heat was just one element under an umbrella of possible disasters. With the appointment of heat officers, the problem has been singled out as especially significant. It needs delicate handling because the solution is part of the problem in affluent nations and cities: energy consumed and heat liberated by air conditioning make things worse.

That's in the realm of policy. In the personal domain, climate change has invaded our dreams—often nightmares. The Climate Dreams Project is a crowdsourced repository of people's dreams triggered by changing weather. Sometimes, the accounts are like fantasy literature. In one, the dreamer rides whaleback among the skyscrapers of New York City. But actually, it's scary because the dream's plot assumes that NYC has sunk like Atlantis. And most of the imagery in other dreams is straight-up post-climate apocalypse dystopian, like scenes out of Mad Max: Fury Road.

AFP

> Extreme heat has been a fact of life forever in the Global South. It's getting a lot of scientific attention because now, the problem has reached the Global North

After making fun of 'indolent Asiatics' for centuries, the West is doing serious research on the effect of heat stress on cognitive abilities and reasoning. An inverse correlation has been found between ambient temperature and oxygen saturation, which could affect cognition. People are up to 10% slower in the head when it's hot, perhaps due to the heat itself and definitely due to dehydration, and students in overheated schools perform poorly in tests which require cognitive skills.

People who don't get what's happening tend to be irritable. Last year, JAMA Psychiatry reported more emergency room visits in the US due to mental health issues. Studies on traffic violation data in New Delhi and Perth, Australia, found that road rage incidents increase in summer. For decades, there has been speculation among criminologists, police forces and private detective agencies like Pinkerton's about crime waves in the summer, which were first noticed in the UK. In the Western economies, it's put down to more people being out and about and fractious young adults being out of school unsupervised. But if violent crime were seen as a separate category, perhaps a summer uptick would be detected, too.

Whether one is looking at cognition or violent crime, much depends on social and economic factors because the homeless and the poor are more exposed to the weather. During the summer of 2022, the effect on food delivery gig workers, who spend long hours without protection from the elements, was disproportionately high.

Extreme heat has been a fact of life forever in the Global South. It's getting a lot of scientific attention because now, the problem has reached the North not just for its psychological and social effects but also due to phenomena like the spread of the dangerous fungal pathogen Candida auris, a 'hospital infection' whose incidence has surged 1200% in five years of warming.

The heat was not a primary matter of interest in about 25 years of climate anxiety in the West. But it is now, spurring both thought and research that will benefit the South, too.

The room cooler was a fantastic South Asian invention, but after rising humidity rendered it useless, making more energy-efficient air conditioners is about all the South has done to tackle the problem, and these devices are priced beyond the reach of the majority.

Technologies that dissipate heat or bounce it back into space would be far more helpful. Now that heat commands the interest of Western policymakers and scientists, perhaps such efficient inventions will become available.

I disagree with India's global image rests on intellectual freedom, free ideas (Aug 18). The faculty resigned on his own. He made insinuations on the outcome of the 2019 elections. It was a research article and not a social media post. Did he have proof? What about the prestige of the institute if it were to beg him to take back his resignation?

Remembering Partition

Ref: Why it is important to remember Partition (Aug 19). The possible naivety of some leaders during Partition as well as allowing the growth of separatist leaders led to the large-scale atrocities. Remembering such scars will enable the present generation to be vigilant against fissiparous groups. A nation that forgets its history forfeits its security, peace and progress.

Bilkis case

Ref: Guj on thin ice on remission, warns SC (Aug 18). The SC's comment is a rap on the Gujarat government's knuckles. After the ordeal Bilkis and her family suffered through, this comment should bring some solace to her, though it doesn't satisfy her demand of rearresting the 11. However, it clearly shows the mindset of the Supreme Court. This should keep her hopes alive.

Civil servants

Ref: Civil servants and the breakdown of balance of power (Aug 18). K M Chandrasekhar rightly pointed out the threat of civil servants exercising power. But unfortunately, the Modi government has brought a bill that will enable civil servants to control the Delhi government, which is critical of the Centre's actions. The illustration clearly describes what is going on in present-day India.

SC reverses acquittal of former RJD MP in double-murder case

Comes down heavily on trial court and high court, which had cited lack of evidence while acquitting Prabhunath Singh, now in jail in another murder case

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Friday found Prabhunath Singh, a Rashtriya Janta Dal (RJD) leader and former Bihar MP, guilty in a double-murder case of 1995 and reversed his acquittal by lower courts.

Singh is accused of killing Rajendra Rai (18) and Daroga Rai (47) near a polling booth in Chhapra in Bihar in March 1995. A Patna court had acquitted Singh in 2008, citing lack of evidence, which was upheld by the high court in 2012.

Noting that there is sufficient evidence to show that Singh committed the crime, a bench of Justices SK Kaul, AS Oka and Vikram Nath directed Secretary, Department of Home, and the Director General of Police, Bihar to take Singh into custody and produce him before the top court on September 1 for pronouncing the quantum of sentence.

The bench was of the view that the appellate courts failed to take into consideration the conduct of the accused subsequent to the incident and also failed to draw any adverse inference against him with respect to guilt.

Coming down heavily upon the trial court and the high court for failure to notice the sensitivity and intricacies of the case, the bench in the 143-page verdict authored by Justice Nath said, "Both the courts completely shut their eyes to the manner of the investigation, the prosecutor's role, and the high-handedness of the accused as also the conduct of the presiding officer of the trial court, despite observations and findings having been recorded not only by the administrative judge but also by the division bench deciding habeas corpus petition. They continued with their classical rut of dealing with the evidence in a manner as if it was a normal trial."

The court also said: "They failed to notice the conduct of the public prosecutor in not even examining the formal witnesses and also that the public prosecutor was acting to the advantage of the accused rather than prosecuting the accused with due diligence and honesty. The presiding officer of the trial court acquitting the accused as also the learned Judge of the High Court dismissing the revision, were both well- aware of the facts, legal procedures, as well as the law regarding appreciation of evidence in a criminal case." The top court's order came in a plea filed by Rajendra Rai's brother, challenging the acquittal.

CBI told to spell out common thread in Lankesh, other cases

The Supreme Court on Friday asked the CBI whether there was any "common thread" in the murders of rationalist Narendra Dabholkar, CPI leader Govind Pansare, activist-journalist Gauri Lankesh and scholar M M Kalburgi. A bench of Justices Sanjay Kishan Kaul and Sudhanshu Dhulia posed this query to the probe agency while hearing a plea by Mukta Dabholkar, daughter of Narendra Dabholkar, challenging the April 18 this year order of the Bombay High Court refusing to continue monitoring the investigation in the killing of her father.

CBI's plea against Lalu's bail to be heard this month

In a fresh trouble for RJD chief Lalu Prasad, the Supreme Court on Friday agreed to hear a plea moved by CBI seeking cancellation of bail granted to him in Doranda treasury case in which he has been sentenced to five years in prison. A bench of CJI D Y Chandrachud and Justices J B Pardiwala and Manoj Misra took note of submissions of Additional Solicitor General S V Raju who mentioned the matter seeking urgent hearing. The SC has posted the matter for hearing on August 25. The HC on April 22, 2022 had granted bail to Yadav in the case.

Bail plea of Umar Khalid adjourned by SC, to be heard after two weeks

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Friday directed for listing of bail plea of former JNU student Umar Khalid on a non-miscellaneous day. Khalid, accused of conspiring in the Delhi riots in February 2020, was arrested by the Delhi Police on September 13, 2020. The police had booked him and his associates under the anti-terror law, Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act (UAPA), and provisions of the Indian Penal Code.

When the plea came up before a bench of Justices Aniruddha Bose and Bela M Trivedi, Justice Bose told Senior Advocate Kapil Sibal that the matter will have to be listed on a non-miscellaneous day.

Khalid had approached the Supreme Court against Delhi High Court's order rejecting his bail plea. Upholding a lower court's order from March 24, 2022 rejecting his bail, justices Rajnish Bhatnagar and Siddharth Mridul said there appeared to be a premeditated conspiracy for causing disruptive chakka-jam and preplanned protests at different sites across the capital.

Opposing Khalid's plea, city police in the affidavit had stated that granting him bail would prejudice "fearless, truthful" deposition of protected witnesses who are yet to be examined by the trial court.

This is not the first time that Khalid's matter has been adjourned. On May 16 top court had sought Delhi Police's response and posted the pleas to be heard after six weeks. Notably, SC judge Justice PK Mishra on August 9 had recused from considering Khalid's plea.

While adjourning the plea for July 24, the Supreme Court had remarked, "It may take 1-2 minutes for this" as it had granted more time for Delhi police to file their response and posted the plea for July 24.

Manipur victims move court seeking Web portal to file FIRs, claim refunds

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Friday sought the Manipur government's reply on a plea seeking setting up of a web portal that allows people, who have fled the state, to upload their FIRs and medical documents for claiming reimbursement.

The plea, filed by two members belonging to Kuki tribal community, has also sought CBI investigation into the killings of mother and brother of one of the petitioners, during the ethnic clash.

"The petitioners, like several other Kuki tribal community people, have been denied of their basic human rights and right to life and livelihood. There have been no steps taken to help the Kuki people either during or aftermath of the violence," the plea stated.

"The petitioners who have escaped from the State of Manipur to other states are facing severe economic burden to re-establish/recover from both mental and physical injuries," it said.

Drawing the court's attention to instances of police resistance police to lodge zero FIRs, the plea sought directions to the police to lodge the same even when immediate transfers of FIRs is not possible.

Against the backdrop of ongoing violence, plea has also sought for directions to government hospitals for free medical treatment. They also want reimbursement of expenses already incurred.

"With no place to return to and having no source of income, it is submitted before this Court that an online portal may be directed to be formed by an Amicus Curiae or any authority as this Court may deem fit," the plea said.

Delhi, Beijing focus on standoff areas

MAYANK SINGH @ New Delhi

THE division commander of the Indian Army in Ladakh on Friday met his Chinese counterpart to take forward the talks on the disengagement of troops from the standoff areas of Depsang and Demchok.

Defence sources confirmed the meeting at the level of the Major Generals, saying "it was to carry forward the discussions by the ground commanders as part of confidence-building measures.

This follows an elaborate 19th corps commander level talks that continued for two days for the first time. In the process to resolve the issues Brigadier-level meetings continue to take place often, sources added. India maintains that its ties with China cannot be normal unless there is peace in the border areas.

The 3 Division of the Indian Army looks after the 832-km Line of Actual Control (LAC) in Ladakh. There has been no movement forward on standoffs in Depsang and Demchok.

The standoff persists at Depsang Y-Junction and Demchok even before the May 2020 standoff began. Sources said the Depsang standoff has resulted in obstruction of Indian troop movement to the traditional Patrolling Points (PP) PP 10, PP11, PP 11A, PP12 and PP13, covering 952 sq km.

There has been disengagement at Galwan, North and South banks of Pangong Tso, Gogra-Hot Springs with the corps commanders meetings between the two countries

The meeting at the level of the Major Generals, saying "it was to carry forward the discussions by the ground commanders as part of confidence-building measures

Defence source

A few tents have been pitched by the Chinese on the Indian side in Demchok and have refused to pull back. The Chinese side dominates around 150 sq km in this area.

Technical term for corps commander-level talks is senior highest military commander level (SHMCL); so far there have been 19 rounds of talks. Matters have earlier been resolved at the higher commander level (Major General) meetings.

There has been disengagement at Galwan, North and South banks of Pangong Tso, Gogra-Hot Springs with the corps commanders meetings in addition to the multiple diplomatic parlays between the two countries.

As reported first by this newspaper, the Chinese moved in their troops after the clashes at Finger 4 area on the North Bank of Pangong Tso.

Subsequently, the standoff spread to other areas. After 2020, India and China currently maintain a combined deployment of over 1 lakh soldiers along with a massive presence of tanks and artillery.

In May the Indian Army put its foot down on the restoration of patrolling rights till traditional points in the remaining standoff points. The standoff at Depsang is of much significance where the Chinese troops have blocked access to PPs 10, 11, 11A, 12, and 13.

The sub-sector North, of which Depsang is a part, is strategically most relevant.

The terrain here is such that large-scale armour operations are possible. China has multiple roads feeding this area while India has only the Darbuk-Shyok-Daulet Beg Oldi (DSDBO) road.

By sitting at the Y Junction, China can obstruct India's movement. Depsang is also a link towards Siachen and the DBO airfield. The Y Junction is about 20km from the strategic airfield Daulat Beg Oldi.

India, Iran discuss Chabahar ahead of BRICS summit in South Africa

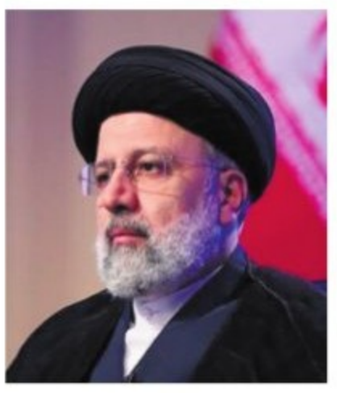
YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

A few days ahead of the BRICS Summit in Johannesburg, Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Friday had a telephonic conversation with Iranian President Dr Seyyed Ebrahim Raisi. Iran is hoping to become a member of BRICS and President Raisi is all for the summit in the South African city.

The two leaders discussed matters of bilateral and regional importance. PM Modi highlighted that India-Iran relationship is underpinned by close historic and civilizational connections, including strong people to people contacts.

On Thursday, Russian President, Vladimir Putin, too spoke with Raisi discussing Iran's membership of BRICS.

Meanwhile, PM Modi and President Raisi also reiterated their commitment to further strengthen bilateral cooperation including to realise the full potential of Chabahar Port as a connectivity hub. The two leaders also discussed cooperation at multilateral forums including expansion of BRICS and looked forward to their meeting on the margins of forthcoming BRICS summit in South Africa, according to the Ministry of External Affairs (MEA).



To mull expansion in Johannesburg meet

The BRICS grouping of emerging economies - comprising Brazil, Russia, India, China and South Africa – will discuss its possible expansion at the summit in South Africa next week. This will be the first in-person BRICS Summit since 2019. The Summit will provide an opportunity to review progress of the initiatives launched by the grouping, and identify future areas of activity

The BRICS group of emerging economies – Brazil, Russia, India, China and South Africa – will discuss its possible expansion at the summit in South Africa next week.

PM Modi will be in Johannesburg from August 22 to 24 to attend the 15th BRICS Summit that is being hosted by South Africa. South African President Matamela Cyril Ramaphosa had called PM Modi earlier this month to extend his invite, following which a formal announcement was made on PM Modi's visiting Johannesburg.

This will be the first in-person BRICS Summit since 2019. The Summit will provide an opportunity to review progress of the initiatives launched by the grouping, and identify future areas of activity.

"PM Modi will participate in a special event "BRICS – Africa Outreach and BRICS Plus Dialogue" being organised after the BRICS Summit, which will include other countries invited by South Africa. He will hold bilateral meetings with some of the leaders," says MEA.

Meanwhile, after the BRICS Summit, PM Modi will head for Greece on August 25 at the invitation of his counterpart Kyriakos Mitsotakis, Greek PM.

World must be ready for next health scare: PM

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT / DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA @ New Delhi / Ahmedabad

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi on Friday said that the world must be ready to "prevent, prepare and respond" to the next global health emergency and urged to open innovations for the benefit of the public in general.

Addressing the G20 Health Ministers' meet in Gandhinagar, he also that India is on its way to "eradicate tuberculosis well ahead of the 2030 target."

He underlined that the Covid-19 pandemic has reminded us that health should be at the center of our decisions.

"Time showed us the value of international cooperation, whether in medicine and vaccine deliveries or in bringing our people back home. As we saw during the pandemic, health issues in one part of the world can affect all other parts of the world in a very short time," the prime minister said in his virual address.

He pointed out that under the Vaccine Maitri initiative, India delivered 300 million vaccine doses to more than 100 countries, including many in the Global South.

PM Modi addresses the G20 Health Ministers' Meet via video conferencing

He said that "there is a need for bolstering global health systems to anticipate, prepare, and respond to future health emergencies, together, as the world is interconnected today."

"Let us open our innovations for the good of the public. Let us avoid duplication of funding. Let us facilitate equitable availability of technology," said the prime minister.

Modi said this initiative will allow countries in the Global South to close the gap in healthcare delivery and will take us one step closer to our goal of achieving Universal Health Coverage. "In India, we are following a holistic and inclusive approach," he remarked.

India must meet US drug norms: US health secy

Indian pharma companies need to meet US standards if they want to continue exporting their drugs to America, US Secretary for Health and Human Services (HSS) Xavier Becerra said Friday Speaking on the sidelines of the ongoing G20 Health Ministers' meeting in Gandhinagar, Becerra said, "Meeting the drug standards would not only help India continue its trade with the US specifically but all maintain the standards and its growth graph moves across the world."

Modi said that the establishment of the WHO Global Centre for Traditional Medicine in Gujarat's Jamnagar earlier this year was an important step in that direction.

The Prime Minister said that the decision to simultaneously hold the WHO Global Summit on Traditional Medicine along with the G20 health ministers' meeting would intensify efforts to harness the potential of traditional medicine.

The G20 meeting being held from August 17 to 19 is pivoted on three key priorities of the G20 Health Track, including the first: prevention of global health emergencies, preparedness and response – with a focus on antimicrobial resistance and the "One Health" framework. The second: strengthening cooperation in the pharmaceutical sector with a focus on access and availability to safe, effective, quality and affordable medical countermeasures. And, the third: digital health innovations and solutions to aid universal health coverage and improve healthcare service.

Priyanka Gandhi is free to choose a seat for herself in UP ■ Kamal Nath lists 225 'scams' in chargesheet against Chouhan govt

Rahul will contest LS poll from Amethi: UPCC chief

If Priyankaji will want to take on Prime Minister Narendra Modi in Varanasi, every Congress worker will put his/her blood sweat and tears to ensure her victory

Ajay Rai, UPCC president

'Rahul's soldier'

UPCC chief Ajai Rai said he is a soldier of Rahul Gandhi, and that he will try his best to live up to the expectations of the top leadership. He said Congress is not just a party but is like a mother to him

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

THE newly-appointed president of Uttar Pradesh Congress Committee (UPCC), Ajay Rai, the former MLA, said that the senior Congress leader and Wayanad MP Rahul Gandhi would contest 2024 Lok Sabha election from Amethi, his traditional seat and the stronghold of Gandhi family.

However, it was upon AICC General Secretary Priyanka Gandhi Vadra and in-charge of party affairs in UP, to choose a seat for herself.

"If Priyankaji will want to take on Prime Minister Narendra Modi in Varanasi, every Congress worker will put his/her blood and sweat to ensure her victory," said Rai while interacting with media persons at Varanasi airport while returning from Delhi to a rousing welcome by the Congress cadre on Friday.

Rai was received by the Congress workers amid the chants of 'Har Har Mahadev' at the Lal Bahadur Shastri International airport on his first arrival in Varanasi after becoming the UPCC chief.

Scores of party workers from Varanasi, Jaunpur, Sonbhadra, Mirzapur, Bhadohi, Chandauli, Kaushambi and other districts had converged in Varanasi to welcome him.

Replying to the queries of media persons, Rai said, "I express my heartfelt gratitude to the top leadership for showing their trust in a worker like me. I am a soldier of Rahul Gandhi, and I will try my best to live up to the expectations of the top leadership. Congress is not just a party for me but is like a mother. I will fulfil my responsibility with all my dedication."

He further said, "As the state president, my main goal will be to give importance to grassroots workers, make the organization active, connect dalits, farmers, women, youth and middle-class people with Congress. My first target is to organize and ensure a grand comeback of the party in the 2024 Lok Sabha elections".

Notably, Rahul Gandhi had lost Amethi to BJP's smriti Irani in 2019. Attacking Smriti Irani, Rai said that she had proved to be an utter failure and that she could not fulfil her promises. "Ask her what happened to her promise of Rs 13 a kg sugar," he said.

K'taka plank: Cong to flag graft during BJP rule in MP

In 18 years of BJP rule, prachar, atyachar aur bhrashtachar (publicity, atrocities and corruption) have become the MP's identity. Shivraj has now turned into Thugraj

Kamal Nath, Cong chief

'Graft worth hundreds'

MP Congress's charge-sheet alleges corruption worth hundreds to thousands crores rupees in various spheres, including nutritious food supply, mid-day meal, school uniforms, Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan, among others,

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bhopal

POSSIBLY guided by the success in May 2023 Karnataka assembly polls, the opposition Congress is making alleged corruption its prime poll plank in poll bound BJP-ruled Madhya Pradesh too.

The state Congress chief Kamal Nath released a pamphlet containing his party's charge-sheet, alleging "growing corruption" in the 18 year BJP rule in MP. In the charge-sheet, the opposition party has alleged over 225 scams during the 18 years of BJP regime in MP (out of which for over 16 years, Shivraj Singh Chouhan has been the state's CM).

The charge-sheet titled 'Ghotala Hi Ghotala: Ghotala Seth: 50% Commission Rate' is reminiscent of similar '40% commission corruption" allegations levelled by the Congress's against the BJP government in Karnataka earlier this year.

The MP Congress's charge-sheet alleges corruption worth hundreds to thousands crores rupees in various spheres, including nutritious food supply, mid-day meal, school uniforms, Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan, skill development, Vyapam mega scam, paramedical students scholarships, nursing, Patwari recruitment, Ujjain's Mahakal Lok and NHM paper leak.

The Congress, which was left surprised by BJP's early first list of 39 candidates on Thursday, released the charge-sheet on Friday two days before home minister Amit Shah will release a detailed Garib Kalyan Report Card of BJP rule in MP on August 20.

"In the 18 years of BJP rule, prachar, atyachar aur bhrashtachar (publicity, atrocities and corruption) have become the identity of MP. I've known Shivraj Singh Chouhan since his Lok Sabha days, I then addressed him as Shivraj, but now he has turned into Thugraj. The rampant corruption in MP has spared no one, spanning from kids to elderly, youths to women and from traders to farmers. Chairpersons of top companies tell me that they don't consider MP a favourable investment destination due to corruption. This is why this charge-sheet in the form of a pamphlet is being released and will be distributed across the state. In the next three months many more scams would surface," Nath said.

Uma Bharti vows to be in politics till last breath

Having not contested the 2019 polls reportedly due to health reasons, former union minister and ex-MP CM Uma Bharti is determined to comtinue her political stint till her last breath. The 64-year-old Bharti, one of the most prominent leaders of the Ram Temple movement, made the statement recently in Dindori district of MP. The statement assumes particular significance, as it came at least three months before the next assembly polls in her home state and 8-9 months before next Lok Sabha polls across the country. The powerful OBC Lodhi caste leader Bharti had last contested elections in 2014, when she won from Jhansi.

Ex-MLA couple's re-entry ruffles some feathers

An unexpected ghar vapasi of a former MLA couple in BJP (five years after they made grave allegations against the local saffron party leadership before joining Congress) is believed to have ruffled the feathers of major section of the ruling party in Rewa district – where all 8 seats were won by the saffron party in the 2018 polls. Return of the couple, Abhay and Neelam Mishra (BJP MLAs from Semariya seat of Rewa district in 2008 and 2013 respectively) in the BJP recently has prompted two MLAs to question top party leaders in Bhopal about the necessity of re-inducting the couple.

BJP list sparks protest by unhappy party workers

Though the BJP has outsmarted the Congress in declaring the first list of candidates for assembly polls, it has also been the first to face open rebellion on streets. Supporters of local BJP leader Guddu Singh took to the streets in Chhatarpur district on Thursday over denial of ticket from Chhatarpur seat to Guddu's wife Archana Singh. Archana, the ex-Nagar Palika head, as BJP candidate, had lost from Chhatarpur in 2018 by 3,400-plus votes and was a front runner for the party's ticket this time. However, party put their faith in ex-minister Lalita Yadav, who had won the seat in 2008 and 2013, but was shifted to Malehara seat in 2018, where she had lost.

Two Thackerays come together to attack Maha govt

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

THE two Thackerays were seen on the same page on Friday. It was Mumbai University's last-minute cancellation of senate election that prompted the two to attack the Eknath Shinde-led state government.

Senate is the governing body for the university. The Mumbai University cancelled senate election on August 17 evening, a day before the expiry of the deadline for filing nominations. Both Aditya Thackeray and Amit Thackeray, the son of MNS chief Raj Thackeray, opposed the abrupt decision of the Mumbai University calling it "arbitrary" and "murder of democracy" by state government.

Former cabinet minister and Shiv Sena youth leader Aditya said the Shinde-BJP regime is so scared of elections in Maharashtra that they have suddenly cancelled the Mumbai University senate elections for the Graduate Constituency! Amit shot a letter to Governor, expressing anger over cancelling the polls. In the letter, he attacked the state government for the decision, alleging that it wants to govern in a dictatorial manner. He said that government and university should have consulted them before taking big decisions.

Gurdaspur worst-hit as dam water brings misery to Punjab

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

Residents with their livestock shift to a safer place from a flood-affected area as the swollen Beas river inundates near Jalandhar on Friday | PTI

THE unfolding flood devastation caused by the release of dam water in Punjab worsened today as more water was discharged from Pong and Bhakra-Nangal into the swollen Beas and the Surtuj.

Sources said 80,200 cusecs of water from Pong dam and 68,416 cusecs from Bhakra-Nangal Dam was released.

The water flow in the Beas was 2,00,000 cusec today while yesterday the maximum level was 25,3000 cusec.

The floodwater entered some 196 villages across six districts of the state disrupting normal life. The worst effected was Gurdaspur district as 90 villages were effected in the district followed by Kapurthala in which 45 villages were marooned. Adding to the misery of Gurdaspur villagers was overnight rain that lashed the catchment areas of Pong dam.

With 500 more people evacuated today, the authorities claim to have rescued 5,500 people in the last four days, Gurdaspur alone accounting for 625 evacuees. As many as 30,000 people have been displaced in the district, authorities said.

In Kapurthala district, teams of National Disaster Response Force personnel with the help of Indian Army evacuated 150 people from Baupur and Busowal villages falling in Sultanpur Lodhi sub-division in the last two days. At least 45 villages are affected in Kapurthala district.

Elsewhere in the state, water has started receding in Hoshiarpur district, according to Deputy Commissioner Komal Mittal. However, the number of affected villages remained the same at 18. Mittal said a few people have started returning to their villages following a dip in the excess water being released from dams.

In Ropar district, some 770 people have so far been rescued. Only three villages in the district are worst affected. In other villages, the water level has come down. In Taran Taran district, 39 villages are affected and 150 people have so been rescued.

Around 150 villages in the Majha region, particularly Sultanpur Lodhi in Kapurthala district have borne the brunt of the flood fury. Deputy Commissioner Captain Karnail Singh recently visited affected villages to assess ongoing relief operations.

Armed men open fire, kill journalist in Bihar, Nitish govt orders probe

RAMASHANKAR @ Patna

A journalist working in a Hindi daily was shot dead by unidentified armed criminals in Bihar's Araria district, a day after chief minister Nitish Kumar claimed that law and order situation in state was not as bad as in other states in the country.

Police said Vimal Kumar, 35, a journalist working with Dainik Jagran, was shot dead at his Premnagar residence under Raniganj police station in Araria district around 5.30 am on Friday. The assailants fired upon him as soon as he opened the door of his house.

The bullet hit his right chest causing an instant death. The assailants, who had arrived on the scene of crime on two motorbikes, fled after committing the murder. The family members rushed to the spot after hearing the sound of firing. Vimal was rushed to Araria referral hospital where he was declared dead. The Raniganj station house officer (SHO) Kaushal Kumar along with police force later brought the body of the slain journalist to Araria sadar hospital for post mortem. Superintendent of Police (SP), Araria, Ashok Kumar Singh attributed the reason behind the attack on the journalist to his testimony in the trial court in connection with the murder of his younger brother Shashi Bhushan alias Gabbu Yadav in April 2019.

CM shocked

CM Nitish Kumar expressed shock over the killing of the journalist. Replying to a query, Nitish said, "I have asked the senior officials to look into the matter. How can a journalist be killed like this?" he added.

Gabbu was sarpanch of Belsara panchayat when he was killed, police sources said. Madhav, who was an accused in the murder case, was released from jail recently. "The police have detained a suspect in the case. Further investigation is underway. The statement of the family members have been recorded and action is being taken against the accused," SP said. Vimal's relatives revealed that the former had received frequent threats over his testimony in the trial court. "He had applied for arms license and approached the police for his safety. However, no help came," alleged a relative who didn't wish to be identified.

No Paradise Lost: J&K back as top film shoot spot

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

(L) A song from Rocky Aur Rani Ki Prem Kahani shot in 2023; Kashmir Ki Kali shot in 1964 before the onset of militancy in Valley

WITH the improvement in the ground situation in Valley, Jammu and Kashmir is again emerging as a favourite destination for filmmakers and about 300 films and serials in different languages have been shot in the picturesque Kashmir after the launch of new film policy by the J&K government about two years back.

The filmmakers have returned to Kashmir to shoot in the picturesque locations. Many Bollywood filmmakers have shot parts of their movies in the Valley in last few years.

A song of Rocky Aur Rani Ki Prem Kahani starring Ranveer Singh and Aaliya Bhatt of noted filmmaker Karan Johar was also filmed in Kashmir.

Kashmir has also emerged as the favourite destinations for the filmmakers from south India. Many south Indian films have been shot in the Valley recently.

Besides, movies and serials in Punjabi, Urdu, Telugu, Kannada and other languages have also been shot in Kashmir.

Before the onset of militancy in J&K in 1989, Kashmir used to be a favorite destination of the filmmakers in 1960s, 70s and 80s and many top Bollywood and Hollywood movies were shot in the picturesque locations in the Valley.

With the filmmakers returning to Kashmir, Lt Governor Manoj Sinha said J&K is again emerging as a favourite destination of film shooting after the launch of new film policy in 2021. "The era of 1980s, when Hollywood and Bollywood films were shot in Kashmir, is returning," he said.

Lt Governor Sinha said about 300 films and serials have been shot in Kashmir after the launch of new film policy.

The revival of film tourism, he said, will help the growth of J&K's economy and provide income opportunities to the unemployed youth.

The cinema going culture has also revived in Valley after movie theatres were reopened last year. The cinema halls were closed in Kashmir after an outbreak of militancy in 1989.

In order to woo the filmmakers to Kashmir, the government is providing subsidies to the filmmakers. As per the J&K Film policy-2021, the filmmakers would be provided subsidy for shooting films, serials, web series and documentaries.

For a filmmaker shooting first film in J&K, upto ₹1 crore or 25% of the total Cost of Production (COP), whichever is lower will be provided by J&K Government if minimum 50% of total shooting days are shot in J&K. The subsidy would also be provided for the filmmakers, who are shooting their second and third film in J&K.

Subsidy would also be given for films produced by award-winning producers and directors.

Fight over pet dogs turns bloody as man goes on shooting spree in Indore

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bhopal

2 killed, many injured

The accused Rajpal Singh Rajawat, an ex-serviceman who worked as security guard with a private bank, his son Sudhir and a close relative Shubham have been arrested and booked under murder charges by the police. A viral video of the incident showed the Rajawat firing warning shot before training the gun at the street below.

TWO men were shot dead in Indore on Thursday night by their neighbour after an altercation over their pet dogs. The incident took place at around 11 pm at Krishna Bag Colony that falls under Khajrana police station limits.

The deceased have been identified as as Vimal Achala (35) and Rahul Verma (27). Six others, including a woman, all residents of the same colony, too sustained injuries, two of them severely.

The accused Rajpal Singh Rajawat, an ex-serviceman who worked as security guard with a private bank, his son Sudhir and a close relative Shubham have been arrested and booked under murder charges by the police.

According to initial probe, Rajawat and his neighbour Achala were walking with their pet dogs in a narrow lane when the two pet canines broke into a fight. The men got into an altercation violent scuffle followed between them. An agitated Rajawat rushed to his first floor home and then started firing from his licensed 12-bore rifle over Achala from the balcony of his house.

A viral video of the incident showed the Rajawat firing warning shot before training the gun at the street below.

Vimal Achala and Rahul Verma were killed in the shooting-spree. Both the victims were rushed to hospital with bullet wounds, but doctors declared them dead on arrival.

Vimal ran a hair salon in Indore's Nipaniya area. According to the local residents, Rajawat, an ex-serviceman, hails from Gwalior and owned a licensed gun.

"The security guard fired at least three rounds from this gun. We are scanning the footage captured in the CCTV cameras installed around the spot," the official said.

All the six injured are out of danger after treatment," PTI quoted Khajrana police station officer-in-charge Umrao Singh as saying. A double-barrel 12-bore gun, its licence, cartridge cases and some live bullets were recovered from the accused security guard, he said.

Dutch, Denmark F-16s to enter combat in Ukraine

Pilots will first have to undertake 6 months of training on the aircraft

THE HAGUE

THE United States has given its approval for the Netherlands and Denmark to deliver F-16s to Ukraine, officials in Washington and Europe said on Friday, in a major gain for Kyiv.

It was not immediately clear when the first F-16s might enter the conflict, but Ukrainian pilots will first have to undertake at least six months of training on the aircraft.

However, Air Force Gen. James Hecker, commander of US air forces in Europe and Africa, said he did not expect the F-16s to be a game-changer for Ukraine. Getting F-16 squadrons ready for battle could take "four or five years," he said.

But in eastern Ukraine, attack helicopter pilots welcomed the news. They said Russia has a clear advantage in the skies, but the introduction of better fighter jets could dramatically shift the balance of power Kyiv's way.

Ukrainian air forces supporting infantry are using decades-old Soviet-era planes, which are vulnerable to air-to-air missile attacks from Russian fighter jets, Capt. Yevgen Rakita, a spokesman for the 18th Army Aviation Brigade, said.

Danish Defence Minister Jakob Ellemann-Jensen said on Friday that the training of Ukrainian pilots is starting this month. A coalition of 11 Western countries—the Netherlands, Belgium, Canada, Denmark, Luxembourg, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Sweden and the United Kingdom—pledged in July to train Ukrainian pilots to fly F-16s.

Denmark will hand over some of its F-16s only after receiving its new F-35 jet fighters. The first four F-35s are due to be delivered on October 1.

US national security adviser Jake Sullivan said US Secretary of State Anthony Blinken sent a letter to his Dutch and Danish counterparts earlier this week, offering formal assurance that the US would fast-track approval of all requests from third parties to transfer F-16s to Ukraine.

In making the decision on F-16 deliveries, Washington aims to ensure warplanes can be provided to Ukraine as soon as its pilots complete training, as per a US official who spoke on condition of anonymity.

Washington's blessing for the plane donations to other countries is needed because the aircraft are made in the US. AP

The panel said about 80% of the reported cases involved abuse of power and that sexual harassment accounted for about 12%

Harassment cases in military mishandled: Japan's govt panel

A panel of experts that investigated harassment cases in Japan's military and Defence Ministry said on Friday it found widespread coverups and reluctance among supervisors to deal with cases, and recommended fundamental improvements

Defence Ministry of Japan in Tokyo | AP

REPORT'S ADVICE

The report urged the ministry and the military to raise awareness about harassment and introduce an appraisal system for those in supervisory positions that includes their handling of harassment cases, such as ensuring protection for victims from retribution

"In order to create an organisation that does not tolerate harassment, we will firmly take steps based on the recommendation (in the report)," said Satoshi Mikai, head of the ministry's staffing and education bureau, as he received the report

Several damage suits have been filed recently against the government by former and serving personnel who said their sexual harassment cases were covered up or mishandled

LACK OF TRUST IN THE SYSTEM

It said in a report that more than 60% of the victims in 1,325 cases reported to the panel never sought help from counsellors in the military or ministry due to a lack of trust in the system or a fear of retribution

The panel said many of the 400 people it interviewed who had sought help from supervisors or counsellors said they did not receive appropriate help and faced coverups, pressure to drop cases, broken confidentiality or a lack of understanding

Eye on China, US, Japan and S Korea step up security ties

CAMP DAVID

UNITED States President Joe Biden on Friday will announce new security cooperation with Japan and South Korea including joint exercises at a first-of-a-kind three-way summit with their leaders that has already rattled China.

Biden marked the historic summit with Japan and South Korea at Camp David on Friday by saying that "our countries are stronger and the world is safer ... as we stand together."

He described the meeting as the first standalone summit among leaders of the three countries.

Addressing South Korean President Yoon Suk Yeol and Japanese PM Fumio Kishida, Biden said, "I want to thank you both for your political courage that brought you here." He added, "Today will be remembered as a historic day."

Biden, Yoon and Kishida will agree to a multiyear plan of regular exercises in all domains, going beyond one-off drills in response to North Korea, and will announce a "commitment to consult" during crises, said Jake Sullivan, Biden's national security advisor.

While the US already works closely with both allies, the new initiatives seek for "this three-way cooperation to get deeper and more institutionalised," Sullivan said at Camp David in the mountains northwest of Washington.

The leaders will also agree to share real-time data on North Korea and to hold summits every year, officials said.

Camp David marks the first time the three countries' leaders have met for a standalone summit.

Even before the summit began, it drew harsh public criticism from the Chinese government.

"The international community has its own judgment as to who is creating contradictions and increasing tensions," Chinese Foreign Ministry spokesperson Wang Wenbin told reporters on Friday. Agencies

Imran booked under Official Secrets Act in cipher case

ISLAMABAD

IN yet another blow to Imran Khan, the jailed ex-PM of Pakistan has been booked under the Official Secrets Act for making the content of a confidential diplomatic cable from the country's embassy in the US public, it emerged on Friday.

Quoting unnamed sources, a report in Geo News claimed that Imran has been booked under Section 5 of the Official Secrets Act 1923 in the cipher case on the basis of a first information report (FIR) registered by the Federal Investigation Agency (FIA) against him.

The counter-terrorism wing of the FIA had registered the case against him after ascertaining his deliberate involvement in misusing the cipher (a classified diplomatic document) following a probe.

Offences under Section 5, if proved in a court of law, involve punishment of imprisonment from two to 14 years, and in some cases even a death sentence. Citing the cipher, Imran has been alleging the US of hatching a conspiracy to topple his government. He had brandished the cipher at a public rally to back his claims. The US has time and again denied such allegations, terming them 'categorically false.'

The purported cipher contained an account of a meeting between US State Department officials, including Assistant Secretary of State for the Bureau of South and Central Asian Affairs Donald Lu, and then Pakistani envoy Asad Majeed Khan. Of late, Imran has come under increased scrutiny following the publication of a purported copy of the secret cable by the US media outlet The Intercept. PTI

British nurse found guilty of murdering seven babies

LONDON

A neonatal nurse in a British hospital was found guilty on Friday of murdering seven babies and trying to kill six other newborns.

Following 22 days of deliberation, the jury at Manchester Crown Court convicted 33-year-old Lucy Letby of killing the babies in the neonatal unit at the Countess of Chester Hospital in northwest England between 2015 and 2016.

Letby was accused of deliberately harming the newborn infants in various ways, including by injecting air into their bloodstreams and administering air or milk into their stomachs via nasogastric tubes. She was also accused of poisoning infants by adding insulin to intravenous feeds and interfering with breathing tubes.

"Parents were exposed to her morbid curiosity and her fake compassion," said the lead prosecutor, Pascale Jones. "Too many of them returned home to empty baby rooms. Many surviving children live with permanent consequences of her assaults upon their lives."

Her attacks, Jones said, were "a complete betrayal of the trust placed in her."

Families of the victims said they will "forever be grateful" to jurors who had to sit through 145 days of "gruelling" evidence. A sentencing hearing was set for Monday. Letby denied all the charges. She was found guilty of the seven murders and of seven charges of attempted murder relating to six children. She was cleared of one charge of attempted murder and the jury could not reach a verdict on several others. AP

20 churches, 86 homes of Christians burnt down by mob, says Pak police

LAHORE

AT least 20 churches and 86 houses of Christians were burnt down by the mob in Pakistan's Punjab province and a total of 145 suspects have been taken into custody, police said in a preliminary report submitted to government on Friday.

The report also hinted at the presence of radical Islamist Tehreek-i-Labbaik Pakistan (TLP) elements that spearheaded the mob that unleashed the attack in Jaranwala tehsil of Faisalabad district, some 130 km from Lahore on Wednesday. The mob was enraged over reports that two Christians had desecrated the Quran.

"At least 20 churches and 86 houses of Christians were burnt down by the mob in Jaranwala. Two Christians who were accused of desecrating the Quran have also been arrested. Besides, a cleric who made announcements from five mosques inciting people to attack Christian homes and churches is among 145 suspects arrested so far," says the Punjab Police report submitted to the government.

Earlier in the day, the police produced 127 suspects before an anti-terrorism court in Faisalabad and obtained their two-day physical remand. Pakistani police have also arrested two prime suspects involved in the attacks, Punjab caretaker Chief Minister Mohsin Naqvi said.

"Major breakthrough in the Jaranwala Incident, both main accused now in CTD Custody. Appreciation for Chief Secretary Punjab and IG Punjab for their relentless efforts...," Naqvi posted on X.

The Christian families started returning to their houses only to find their dwellings in ruin. They blamed the government for failing to provide security to their lives and properties in the face of radical Islamists' onslaught. PTI

W Africa army chiefs prepare possible Niger mission

Accra: West African military chiefs held a second day of talks in Ghana on Friday, preparing for a possible armed intervention in Niger after a coup there ousted President Mohamed Bazoum. ECOWAS defence chiefs were meeting in the Ghanaian capital Accra to fine tune details of the potential military operation to restore Bazoum if ongoing negotiations with coup leaders fail. "Let no one be in doubt that if everything else fails the valiant forces of West Africa, both the military and the civilian components, are ready to answer to the call of duty," Abdel-Fatau Musah, an ECOWAS commissioner for political affairs and security, told the meeting. ECOWAS has agreed to activate a "standby force" as a last resort to restore democracy in Niger.

War journals of Ukrainian kids displayed in Amsterdam

War Diaries exhibition, showcasing the personal diaries of Ukrainian kids who have witnessed the war, hosted by the Amsterdam city hall on Thursday | AP

AMSTERDAM

THE city where Anne Frank wrote her World War II diary while hiding with her family from the brutal Nazi occupation is hosting an exhibition about the Ukraine war with grim echoes of her plight.

The exhibition that opened at Amsterdam City Hall on Thursday offers a vision of the war in Ukraine as experienced by children caught in the conflict.

"This exhibition is about the pain through the children's eyes," Khrystyna Khranovska, who developed the idea, said.

"War Diaries," includes writings like those that Anne Frank penned, but also modern ways Ukrainian kids have recorded and processed the traumatic experience of life during war, including photos and video.

Among them is the artwork of Mykola Kostenko, now 15, who spent 21 days under siege in the port city of Mariupol.

His pictures from that time are in blue ballpoint pen on pieces of paper torn out of notebooks—that's all Kostenko had. One of them shows the tiny basement where he and his family sheltered from the Russian shells before finally managing to flee the city.

"I put my soul into all of these pictures because this is what I lived through in Mariupol. What I saw, what I heard. So this is my experience and this is my hope," Mykola Kostenko said.

The youngest diarist, 10-year-old Yehor Kravtsov, also lived in Mariupol. In text on display next to his diary, he writes that he used to dream of becoming a builder. But his experience living through the city's siege changed his mind. "When we got out from the basement during the occupation and I was very hungry, I decided to become a chef to feed the whole world," he wrote. "So that all the people would be happy and there would be no war."

Meanwhile, UNICEF says an estimated 1.5 million Ukrainian children are at risk of depression, anxiety, post-traumatic stress disorder and other mental health issues. AP

EU warns of declining democracy in Hong Kong

BRUSSELS

THE EU warned on Friday that democracy and rights in Hong Kong declined further in 2022.

The assessment came in the bloc's latest annual report on the Chinese island territory.

The EU said the implementation of a 2020 national security law Beijing imposed on Hong Kong and the installation of a chief executive, John Lee, following sweeping changes to electoral laws headlined its evaluation.

"In parallel, 2022 saw the continuing erosion of Hong Kong's high degree of autonomy and of rights and freedoms that were meant to be protected until at least 2047," report said.

It said developments stemming from those changes "increasingly cast doubt on the state of the rule of law in Hong Kong—a cornerstone of its economic success."

The EU noted a curbing of media and internet freedoms, a mass trial of 47 pro-democracy lawmakers and activists, the prosecution of media tycoon Jimmy Lai and restrictions on freedom of assembly and the right to unionise.

On the economic front, Hong Kong was still "very open" and kept monetary and trade independence, the report said. AFP

JFS now 2nd-largest non-banking financial company in India

JIO FINANCIAL SERVICES TO LIST ON AUGUST 21

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @Mumbai

THE shares of Jio Financial Services (JFS), the financial services arm of Reliance Industries Limited (RIL), will be listed on bourses on Monday.

RIL had last month spun off JFS, with the stock price set at ₹261.85, valuing it at around ₹1.66 lakh crore or $20 billion in a special trading session held on July 20.

"Trading Members of the Exchange are hereby informed that effective from Monday, August 21, 2023, the equity shares of Jio Financial Services Ltd (formerly known as Reliance Strategic Investments Limited) shall be listed and admitted to dealings on the Exchange in the list of T Group of Securities," said the Bombay Stock Exchange in circular on Friday. BSE added that the scrip would be in the Trade-for-Trade segment for 10 trading days and will start trading from this Monday, bearing the symbol JIOFIN.

With market capitalisation of over ₹1.66 lakh crore, JFS is now the second-largest NBFC and the 32nd most valued company in India, bigger than giants like Tata Steel, Coal India, HDFC Life and SBI Life. Last month (on July 20), stock exchanges BSE and NSE conducted a one-hour special price discovery session for the first time ever to determine the value of Jio Financial Services' shares.

Its shares are part of several indices but can't be traded until its shares are listed. JFSL has been included in Nifty50, BSE Sensex and other indices, and will remain at a constant price till the time the stock is listed independently. The stock will be removed from all indices T+3 day which is August 24.

Meanwhile, UK's FTSE Russell reversed its earlier decision to drop JFS from its indices from August 22. It said on Friday that scrip will be added to MSCI Global Standard Index on August 23. On Thursday, FTSE Russell said that JFS would be removed from several FTSE Indices for failing to commence trading after 20 business days. Last month, JFS and US-based BlackRock said they would form an equal joint venture to launch asset management services in India, with an initial investment of $150 million each.

Edtech firm Byju's lays off of 100 employees citing poor performance

UMA KANNAN @Bengaluru

EDTECH company Byju's, has let go of another 100 employees, citing poor performance.

This layoff announcement comes at a time when the company is struggling with term loan B and delaying filing its FY22 audited results, among other issues. The company has fired over 3,000 employees so far. A spokesperson from Byju's confirmed the development. "There are no fresh layoffs in the post sale division. In fact, during the past two months, as part of our commitment to augmenting this division, Byju's has recruited 200 new professionals."

> There are no fresh layoffs in post sale division. During past two months, as part of our commitment to augmenting this division, Byju's has recruited 200 new professionals
> Byju's spokesperson

However, as part of a periodical performance review, 100 individuals who didn't meet expectations after a performance improvement plan, were let go with proper procedures, Byju's said. The company also stressed that this measure is firmly rooted in performance-based considerations and is not in any way a cost-cutting endeavour. Recently, CEO Byju Raveendran addressed the investors. According to sources, newly-appointed advisory council members- SBI chairman Rajnish Kumar and former CFO of Infosys TV Mohandas Pai- and CFO Ajay Goel were also present. This was mainly to reassure investors.

The council plays a significant role in advising and mentoring Byju's Board and its CEO on crucial matters. It has been recruiting top executives and this includes the recently hired upGrad's former CEO Arjun Mohan as the CEO of its international business. On August 14, former head of HR at IT major Infosys Richard Lobo also joined the company as its exclusive advisor to help transform the firm's Human Resources function. The firm had missed an August 3 timeline set by its creditors to amend a $1.2 billion term loan. Sources had said discussions are on and it is progressing well in the right direction and expected to close at the earliest.

INDIA'S innovative spirit has gained a new awakening with the government reposing confidence in its own countrymen, said Union Minister of Railways, Communications and Electronics and IT Ashwini Vaishnaw.

Speaking at the award function, where he distributed G20 Digital Innovation Alliance (DIA) Global Startup Winners' awards to 30 persons across the member countries in different categories on Friday, Vaishnaw said, "When we are designing for the whole world, why cannot we design for ourselves? And this is the fundamental change in thinking." The minister added, "The quality of participation this time was huge and we need to maintain this as an integral part of the G20 meeting every year."

Earlier, speaking at the award function, Alkesh Kumar Sharma, Secretary, Ministry of Electronics & Information Technology, said they received an overwhelming response to the call to create solutions, productions and innovations in the areas of agritech, EdTech, HealthTech, FinTech, circular economy and secured digital infrastructure, from the global startup community.

"We received some 5,000 applications from diverse startups from across the globe, which were shortlisted to 123 and finally solutions, products and innovations of 30 startups were chosen and recognised today," he added.

Innovation exhibits

On the sidelines of the summit, an innovation exhibition was put up by corporates and startups. Also, G20 Digital Economy Working Group (DEWG) is being held in Bengaluru, which has identified three priority areas, namely Digital Public Infrastructure, Security in the Digital Economy, and Digital Skilling.

Over the past eight months, extensive discussions have been held among G20 members, invited countries, and international organisations on the various aspects of the priority areas and key deliverables.

REAL ESTATE SECTOR CRISIS DEEPENS

The real estate crisis in China has aggravated as one of its biggest realtor Evergrande on Thursday filed for bankruptcy protection under Chapter 15 in the US. Evergrande had defaulted on its debt payments two years ago sending shockwaves across China's real estate as well as global financial markets. The bankruptcy filing comes close on the heels of another China-based property developer Country Garden struggled to make interest payments on US dollar-denominated bonds. Evergrande's debt rose to $340 billion by December 31, 2022. Shares of the company suspended from trading on March 21, 2022. The company has over 1,300 projects in more than 280 cities in the country. Real estate accounts for some 20% of China's economy. When spending on steel and copper for construction, furniture and other related purchases is added in, estimates of its share of the economy rises as high as 35%.

Asian markets mostly declined on Friday as rising yields in the bond market on Wall Street set off expectations that high interest rates would continue in the US. Consumer price Inflation in Japan rose 3.1% from a year earlier in July, down from 3.3% in June. But that was still higher than the 2.5% forecast by some analysts and above the Bank of Japan's target at 2%. Japan's core consumer price index, which eliminates energy and fresh food prices from the measure, rose 4.3% on year, as per the Ministry of Internal Affairs and Communications. Japan's Nikkei 225 fell 0.6% to finish at 31,450.76. China's shaky recovery from the negative economic effects of the coronavirus pandemic Australia's S and P/ASX 200 was virtually unchanged.

MALAYSIA

GDP GROWTH EASES TO 2.9% IN Q2

The gross domestic product (GDP) of Malaysia rose 2.9% year-on-year (YoY) in the second quarter (Q2) of 2023, according to Bank Negara Malaysia. Continued increase in domestic demand and higher tourism activities and improving labour market lifted the growth rate. However, on a quarter-on-quarter basis, the GDP expanded slower than the 5.6% recorded in Q1. Datuk Shaik Abdul Rasheed Abdul Ghaffour, Bank Negara governor, said domestic demand remained the key driver of growth, supported by private consumption and investment. According to him, investment activity was underpinned by capacity expansion, progress of multi-year projects and higher fixed asset spending by the government. On a quarter-on-quarter seasonally-adjusted basis, the economy rose 1.5% from 0.9% posted in first quarter of 2023.

'Give fixed rate home loan options'

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @Mumbai

THE Reserve Bank of India (RBI) on Friday asked banks and other lenders to provide individual borrowers with an option of switching over to a fixed rate at the time of reset of interest rates.

RBI released detailed guidelines to reset interest rates for equated monthly installments (EMI) in floating interest loans. The guidelines come after several borrowers raised concerns about elongation of loan tenor or increase in EMI amount, without proper communication. The central bank, on August 8, in its monetary policy review said it would shortly issue the guidelines regarding this issue. "At the time of sanction, REs (Regulated Entities) shall clearly communicate to the borrowers about the possible impact of change in benchmark interest rate on the loan leading to changes in EMI and/or tenor or both. Subsequently, any increase in the EMI/ tenor or both on account of the above shall be communicated to the borrower immediately through appropriate channels," the RBI said in a notification.

It further said at the time of reset of interest rates, REs should provide an option to borrowers to switch over to a fixed rate as per their board-approved policy. The policy, RBI added should specify the number of times a borrower will be allowed to switch during the tenor of the loan. Borrowers should also be given a choice to opt for enhancement in EMI or elongation of tenor or for a combination of both options.

In a separate notification, RBI also released guidelines to stop practice of banks and NBFCs of using penal interest as a revenue enhancement tool. As per the revised norms, lenders would be able to levy only "reasonable" penal charges in case of default in repayment of loans.

The banks and other lending institutions will not be allowed to levy penal interest with effect from January 1, 2024, the RBI said in its notification on 'Fair Lending Practice-Penal Charges in Loan Accounts'.

"Penalty, if charged, for non-compliance of material terms and conditions of loan contract by the borrower shall be treated as 'penal charges' and shall not be levied in the form of 'penal interest' that is added to the rate of interest charged on the advances," RBI said in a notification.

Banks can't levy penal interest from January 1

In a separate notification, RBI released guidelines to stop practice of banks and NBFCs of using penal interest as a revenue enhancement tool. As per the revised norms, lenders would be able to levy only "reasonable" penal charges in case of default in repayment of loans. The banks and other lending institutions will not be allowed to levy penal interest with effect from January 1, 2024

Jan Dhan accounts cross 50 crore mark

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

THE number of Jan Dhan accounts, which aims to expand access to financial services in the country, has crossed 50 crore mark, with 56% of the accounts belonging to women, finance ministry said on Friday.

As per the ministry, nearly 67% of these accounts have been opened in rural and semi-urban areas. The total deposits in these accounts are above ₹2.03 lakh crore while nearly 34 crore RuPay cards have been issued with these accounts free of cost. The average balance in Pradhan Mantri Jan Dhan Yojana (PMJDY) accounts is ₹4,076. Over 5.5 crore of these accounts are receiving Direct Benefit Transfer (DBT), it said.

The National Mission on Financial Inclusion PMJDY), launched on August 28, 2014, has been successful in changing the financial landscape of the country, it added.

Mahindra to inspect 1 L XUV700 for wiring issue

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

SPORTS utility vehicle (SUV) major Mahindra & Mahindra will inspect 1,08,306 units of its XUV700 model manufactured between June 8, 2021, and June 28, 2023, for potential risk of damage to the wiring loom.

"M&M will inspect wiring loom routing in the engine bay of 1,08,306 units of XUV700 manufactured between June 8, 2021, to June 28, 2023, for a potential risk of abrasion cut of wiring loom," it said in an exchange filing on Friday. XUV700 was launched in September 2021 and is currently priced between ₹14-29 lakh.

Also, 3,560 units of XUV400 vehicle manufactured between February 16, 2023, to June 5, 2023, will be inspected for ineffective spring return action of the brake potentiometer. XUV 400 is Mahindra's electric SUV launched earlier this year in January 2023. As per an automotive industry analyst at a rating agency, this large inspection is negative for the automaker as it conveys a message that the company sold below-par or even faulty products to consumers for more than two years.

Commenting on the fresh recall, M&M said, "This is keeping in line with the company's customer-centric approach. The inspection and subsequent rectification will be carried out free of cost for all customers, who will be individually contacted by the company."

Mahindra in December 2022 had recalled a total of 6,618 Scorpio-N units and 12,566 XUV700 units that were assembled between July 1 and November 11, 2022.

Forex reserves rise $708 mn to $602.16 bn

Mumbai: India's foreign exchange reserves jumped $708 million to $602.161 billion for the week ended August 11, the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) said on Friday. This is the first increase in the kitty after declining for three consecutive weeks. In the previous reporting week, the overall reserves had fell $2.417 billion to $601.453 billion. ENS

Employees living in rent-free homes may have to shell out lower taxes

DIPAK MONDAL @ New Delhi

IN a major relief to taxpayers using rent-free accommodation provided by the employer, the tax department has lowered the valuation of such an accommodation for the purpose of tax calculation.

The change in calculation will lead to higher take-home salary for employees living in rent-free accommodations.

A notification to this effect was issued late on Friday night. The accommodation provided to employees would now be valued at 10% of salary (lowered from 15% earlier) in cities with population exceeding 40 lakhs as per 2011 census (earlier 25 lakhs as per 2001 census), 7.5% of salary (reduced from 10%) in cities exceeding 15-40 lakh population and 5% of salary (reduced from 7.5%) in other areas. The revised computation will be effective from 1 September 2023.

The new provisions incorporate the insights from 2011 census data and aim to rationalise the perquisite value calculation.

As per the Income Tax Act, employees availing rent-free accommodation from their companies are eligible to pay tax on equivalent amount of rent for the accommodation. Rent-free accommodation is considered a perquisite offered to an employee by an employer, and the same is taxable under the head of income from 'Salaries'.

According to Gaurav Mohan, CEO of CA firm AMRG & associates, after the change employees enjoying rent-free accommodation would see rationslisation of perquisite value leading to a reduction in taxable salary, increasing the net take-home pay.

"It is worth noting that the reduction in the perquisite value of rent-free accommodations will yield dual implications -- on the one hand, it will generate tangible savings for employees, while on the other hand, it will result in a corresponding decrease in government revenue," says Gaurav Mohan.

According to tax experts, this change will lead to disproportionate benefits for higher-income employees who receive expensive accommodations. Lower-income employees with more modest accommodations might not experience significant tax relief.

Tax experts say that the change in the valuation rules would prompt corporate employers to strategically revisit and potentially reshape their existing compensation frameworks, particularly if they can capitalise on tax advantages for their workforce.

The notification also inserts a new provision for valuation of rent-free accommodation owned by the employer and occupied by the same employee for more than one previous year. In such a case, the valuation calculated will not exceed the valuation for the first previous year arrived at by applying the Cost Inflation Index.

NCLAT allows Go First lessor to inspect engines

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

MODIFYING the previous National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) order, the National Company Law Appellate Tribunal (NCLAT) on Friday allowed engine lessor -Engine Lease Finance BV - to inspect four of its engines leased to crisis-hit bankrupt airline Go First.

The NCLAT gave the airline's resolution professional (RP) a time of 10 days to give the engine lessor the date of the inspection. "The Adjudicating Authority (NCLT) refusing inspection is not approved. Inspection of engines is allowed," said the NCLAT in its order.

It added that other issues raised by the parties will be addressed by the NCLT in on September 1. Engine Lease Finance BV argued that each of the engines leased out to Go First is valued at $15 million and it is important that they are permitted to inspect them.

The company said while Delhi High Court has permitted inspections of the aircraft, the NCLT is yet to give a approval. The NCLT on July 26 didn't prohibit Go First from using leased aircraft for its operations.

PCB invites Jay Shah to Pakistan to watch Asia Cup

The Pakistan Cricket Board (PCB) on Friday invited Jay Shah, BCCI secretary and president of ACC, to attend the opening match of the Asia Cup between Pakistan and Nepal on August 30 at Multan. The PCB said it has also invited heads of other boards who are part of the Asian Cricket Council for the opening match.

NEERAJ CHOPRA | Javelin

The javelin star's silver medal at the 2022 event in the USA ended India's 19-year wait for a podium finish with 88.39 meters throw. In Budapest, Chopra would like to go one step higher to finish with the gold medal. The World Championship could provide the best opportunity for the 25-year-old, aiming to break the elusive 90m mark.

AVINASH SABLE | 3000 m steeplechase

Sable recently became the first Indian track athlete to qualify for the 2024 Paris Olympics after finishing sixth in the Diamond League in July 2023, clocking 8:11.63s in Silesia. In the 2022 World Championships in Oregon, Sable finished 11th in the final but is still considered a medal contender for India.

JYOTHI YARRAJI | 100m hurdles

The latest 100m hurdles sensation, Jyothi is one of the four women representing India at Budapest. With her latest success in the Asian Athletics Championship in Bangkok, where she bagged the gold, and the silver medal in the Summer World University Games, a final finish will be a big achievement.

STARS WHO CAN SHINE

A LOOK AT SOME OF THE INDIANS WHO COULD MOUNT A CHALLENGE IN THE WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS

MURALI SREESHANKAR | Long jump

With the 2022 Commonwealth Games and 2023 Asian Athletics Championship silver medals already in his bag, Sreeshankar is ready to take the next big leap in long jump. After becoming the first long jumper to win a bronze medal with an effort of 8.09m in the 2023 Paris Diamond League, the 24-year-old from Kerala is in form and could elevate his status further.

PRAVEEN CHITHRAVEL | Triple jump

Since his debut at the 2022 World Championship, where he finished 17th, the Indian triple jumper has made progress. The youngster started the 2023 season with a silver medal in the Asian Indoor Athletics Championships. Even with the Indian duo of Abdulla Aboobacker and Eldhose Paul, Chithravel could potentially have a podium finish.

ALL EYES ON NEERAJ AS WORLDS TEST BEGINS

Olympic champ best bet for India at marquee event in Budapest

INDRANEEL DAS @Chennai

THE World Athletics website is a reflection of India's rise in athletics. Their website mentions sportspersons from India in javelin throw, long jump and triple jump to name a few. And this World Athletics Championships in Budapest that starts from Saturday, these are disciplines in which India would be focussing on. There is another track event — 3000m men's steeplechase — in which India has been improving and is expected to do well this time as well. Even on the ranking lists and the season's best lists Indians feature. But translating them into medals at the mega event will not be easy.

The names too are familiar. There is one Neeraj Chopra on whom the burden of winning a medal would be enormous. The Olympic champion has been the most consistent Indian on the circuit. The Diamond League final winner would be hoping to carry on his impeccable form in the world's greatest athletics event of the year.

The 25-year-old javelin thrower had to take a small break due to a groin strain but ever since June, when he competed at the Lausanne, he has been preparing well at his training bases in Germany and Switzerland. He shifted to Budapest and is set for the World Championships where he would want the silver, he won during the last edition, turns into gold. Before the world championships, he topped the two Diamond League events with throws of 88.67 (Doha DL) and 87.66m (Lausanne DL). Because of a long season with Asian Games in September-October, he has been taking it easy. He will reach Budapest on Monday. However, his gold quest will not be easy. His usual competitors have entered their names and Anderson Peters, like last year would want to crash the party. Peters has throws above 90m and has beaten Neeraj last year. Jakub Vadlejch of Czech Republic, who is right now the world leader with 89.51m followed by Julian Weber of Germany 88.72m are ahead of Neeraj who has 88.67m this season.

INDIANS IN ACTION

Men's triple jump qualification (Praveen Chithravel, Abdulla Aboobacker, Eldhouse Paul), men's 1500m heats (Ajay Kumar Saroj), women's long jump qualification (Shaili Singh), men's 3000m steeplechase heats (Avinash Sable), men's 20km race walk final (Akashdeep Singh, Vikash Singh, Paramjeet Singh)

LIVE on JioCinema

World champion Anderson Peters of Grenada has managed 85.88m in Doha DL and has not been too fit. Going by the quotes on the World Athletics website, he claimed to be 75 per cent fit. "I'm 75% back but over the next few days I'll work with the massage therapist so I can be at least 85 to 90% by the time I compete, better yet 100%."

However, if anyone who could challenge Peters or Vadlejch it has to be Neeraj. If Neeraj is one who could win India medal, there are others who can add to the tally. Though tough, M Sreeshankar seems primed for a podium finish at the Worlds. He and Jeswin Aldrin are the two world leaders in long jump as of now. While Aldrin jumped 8.42m in March, Sreeshankar cleared 8.41m in June. Sreeshankar had an 8.37m at the Asian Athletics Championships at Bangkok last month and said that the jump, which was his best on foreign soil would give him a lot of confidence. Aldrin on the other hand believes he will do well at Budapest.

Of course, beating the Olympic champion and silver medallist of the last edition Miltiadis Tentaglou who too had an 8.41 season's best will not be easy. Simon Ehammer, who had a bronze at Worlds, too has entered though he has not crossed 8.32m this season. China's Olympic champion Jianan Wang has not crossed 8.26m this season. Anything is possible and in long jump, one good jump is enough to secure a medal.

India will be keenly following the 3000m men's steeplechase as well. After Avinash Sable's silver at the Birmingham Commonwealth Games, there will be a lot of expectation from the athlete who has been improving every race. He would be looking to break the 8:10.00s barrier first before getting into the medal bracket. In the field that has Lamecha Girma of Ethiopia and Soufiane El Bakkali of Morocco, both of whom have run well below 8 minutes, the challenge to overcome them will be daunting. The next place can be anyone's including Sable and the Kenyans.

All eyes also will be on young Shaili Singh in the women's long jump. Jyothi Yarraji has been making the right noises in 100m hurdles so is Praveen Chitravel in triple jump.

SAI seeks grapplers' consent for camp

FIROZ MIRZA @ Chennai

TAKING a lesson from the past few instances, the Sports Authority of India (SAI) while replying to a request of the ad-hoc committee has asked the panel to get the consent of wrestlers for the proposed national camp.

The panel running day-to-day affairs of wrestling in the country has recently requested the SAI to organise national camps for wrestlers ahead of two big-ticket events — the 2023 World Championships and the Asian Games. "The panel has requested the SAI to organise the camp for wrestlers in all three styles — men's freestyle and Greco-Roman and women's wrestling. Replying to it, the SAI in turn asked the committee to obtain consent of the wrestlers," a source in the know of things told this daily.

It is learnt that the panel wanted to have a camp for the top-two wrestlers of the Asian Games selection trials in each weight category. The committee comprising ex-Wushu Association of India chief Bhupender Singh Bajwa and shooting coach Suma Shirur suggested NIS Patiala as the venue for the women's camp while SAI Centre in Sonepat as an option for the men's camp. Notably, national camps for the male wrestlers have not been organised since April. For women wrestlers, the situation has been worse as they hardly got to train at the camp this year except for a few days. In fact, a camp was held for them in Sonepat earlier this year but most of the selected grapplers preferred to train at their respective hometowns. "Women wrestlers not joining the camp in the past might be one of the reasons which made the SAI seek consent. The ongoing mess could be another reason," said the source.

Apart from the wrestlers' consent, the SAI has also asked the committee to name coaches for the camp. Besides, it also questioned whether two wrestlers in each weight category will be enough for the camp. The panel, in turn, has asked the coaches to speak to wrestlers and get their consent. "The World Championships selection trials are scheduled on August 25 and 26. Once it is over, then a list of wrestlers can be prepared. The Asian Games trials were held in six Olympic weight categories only. The Worlds trials will be conducted for all ten weight categories. So it's better to wait for it and then select the wrestlers. Even the bronze medallists from each weight category can be picked up for the camp apart from the top-two wrestlers," added the source. The Worlds is scheduled in Belgrade, Serbia from September 16 to 24 while wrestling competitions will be held from October 4 to 7 at the Asiad in Hangzhou, China. The panel wants the camp to be held till September 30.

History for India, Antim

Antim Panghal created history as she retained her U-20 World Championships title in Amman City, Jordan on Friday and became the first wrestler from the country to win two back-to-back gold medals at the event. The 18-year-old from Haryana had become the first Indian woman grappler to clinch the gold in the 2022 edition. Up against Mariia Yefremova of Ukraine, Antim registered a 4-0 win. The gold rush continued as Savita finished first in the 62kg weight category, defeating Astrid Paola Montero Chirinos of Venezuela. The gold also helped India win the team championship in women's wrestling, a first for the country. However, Antim's namesake, who faced Hungarian Eniko Elekes in the 65kg final, lost the bout to settle for silver. Earlier, Reena bagged the bronze in the 57kg overpowering Shugyla Omirbek of Kazakhstan. Harshita finished off the Indian women's campaign in style as she pinned Emilia Creciun of Moldova to bag 72kg bronze. Indian wrestlers won medals in all five weight categories (2 gold, 1 silver, 2 bronze) on Friday.

Bumrah & Co show early promise as India take lead against Ireland

GOMESH S @Chennai

EVEN as everyone was eagerly expecting to see Jasprit Bumrah in action against Ireland on Friday, the forecast did not look good. It seemed like he will have to wait till Sunday to run in with the Kookaburra ball in hand donning India colours. However, the skies cleared in time as the Indian captain for the tour won the toss and opted to bowl. And his first ball was a leg stump half volley, which Andy Balbirnie flicked over leg side to the ropes. A rather anti-climatic return one would think.

However, over the next five balls Bumrah went on to show that he is the same world-class bowler he was a year ago. W . . W . — it was a whole package that had length balls that came into the batter, two searing yorkers and more. Bumrah was well and truly back. This series, as much as it is about Bumrah, is also about Prasidh Krishna and Arshdeep Singh as India are looking at their pace battery to decide on the options they could have. And they did not disappoint. Arshdeep started quietly in the powerplay even as he tried to swing the ball back, hitting the hard lengths, but Prasidh did not take time to make an impact on his debut. In first over, he went short to Harry Tector, who tried to play the ramp shot something that did not work for Lorcan Tucker, only to hand a easy catch to Tilak Varma. He went on to remove George Dockrell with his typical back of length delivery that was hit straight to cover. With Ravi Bishnoi joining the party, the hosts were reduced to 59/6 in the eleventh over.

Prasidh Krishna (C) getting his India cap from Jasprit Bumrah | BCCI

It seemed like a perfect chance for the Indian pace attack to capitalise and dismiss Ireland below the 100-run mark. However, Curtis Campher and Barry McCarthy had other ideas. The duo took the attack to the Indian bowlers, especially in the death. Both Bumrah and Prasidh were carted around with Campher and McCarthy, respectively, smashing consecutive boundaries off them. The India duo struggled to nail the yorkers and Ireland made the most of it. When Arshdeep did land one, he got rid of Campher for 39 runs from 33 balls. However, he too was taken apart by McCarthy for 22 runs in the final over as Ireland posted 139/7. In reply, India cruised to 47/2 in 6.5 overs before rain stopped play, but they were declared winners by DLS method.

Despite the late struggle, Bumrah finished with 24/2 in his four overs. Not a bad start for a guy who hadn't played any competitive cricket for 11 months, isn't it? Brief scores: Ireland 139/7 in 20 ovs (McCarthy 51 n.o, Campher 39; Bumrah 2/24, Prasidh 2/32) lost to India 47/2 in 6.5 ovs by two runs (DLS)

Chennaiyin beat Delhi in Durand Cup game

GUWAHATI: Chennaiyin FC beat Delhi FC 2-1 for their third consecutive victory in a Group E fixture of the Durand Cup, here at the Indira Gandhi Athletic Stadium on Friday. Chennaiyin FC, thus, finished the group unbeaten, securing nine points from three matches and head into the quarterfinals high on confidence. Rafael Crivellaro and Vincy Barretto scored for the winners while Pape Alassane Gassame scored one back for Delhi FC.

Javelin thrower Jena gets Hungarian visa

NEW DELHI: Indian javelin thrower Kishore Jena on Friday received his visa to travel to Hungary, paving the way for him to compete at the World Athletics Championships in Budapest from August 19 to 27. "All of you might be aware that I faced an issue with my (Hungarian) visa for the World Athletics Championships. However, the problem has been resolved now," Jena said.

Liverpool sign Japan midfielder Endo

LIVERPOOL: Liverpool signed Japan midfielder Wataru Endo from German club Stuttgart. Endo, 30, was in the last year of his contract at Stuttgart, where he was the captain. He played in all four of Japan's games at the World Cup. "He is a top fit and we will have a lot of fun with him," Liverpool manager Jurgen Klopp said.

Kian Martin navigating the waves in Mahabalipuram, Chennai, on Friday

Sweden's Kian shines to book semifinal berth

ENS @ Chennai

KIAN Martin of Sweden impressed to book a spot in the semifinals on Day 4 of the Tamil Nadu International Surf Open World Surf League (WSL) Qualifying Series (QS) 3,000 event.

Martin found a good rhythm with the long reeling rights, posting a solid heat total of 15.25 to edge Joh Azuchi of Japan. Martin will look to continue this form when he takes on Raiha Onou, also of Japan, in the semifinals on Saturday. "This trip was so spontaneous and unplanned so it's hard to fathom that I'm into the semifinals," Martin said. "I got here at 4:30 am in the morning before my first heat which was luckily not called on the day before. It's all been worth it as I keep making heats and the waves keep getting better and better. Joh (Azuchi) has been surfing so incredibly so I knew I'd need to be on the bigger waves. Fortunately, I got some sets and got the win. I'm so stoked to be here in India, good things are happening."

Shino Matsuda, meanwhile, continued her happy run. The Japan surfer once again posted the highest heat total of the round with a 13.35 two-wave total to win her quarterfinal over Tru Starling of Australia.

Dutee to challenge four-year NADA suspension

AGENCIES @ New Delhi

DOUBLE Asian Games silver medallist Dutee Chand will challenge the four-year ban imposed on the celebrated Indian athlete by the National Anti-Doping Agency (NADA) for failing two out-of-competition dope tests for a banned substance.

The 27-year-old 100m national record holder was on Thursday served the ban after two samples taken in December last year were found to contain "other anabolic agents/SARMS", which is listed under "WADA's 2023 prohibited list of non-specified substances".

The samples were taken on December 5 and 26 respectively and both returned positive for almost identical substances. SARMS, or selective androgen receptor modulators, are non-steroidal substances commonly used to treat osteoporosis, anaemia and wound healing in patients. Dutee's ban will be effective from January 3 this year and all her competitive results will be scrapped from the date the first sample collection took place (December 5, 2023).

'Bout with cancer'

Dutee experienced the shock of her life when she was told by a doctor in November 2021 that level 1 cancer has attacked her body and she must quit the sport. That was after she failed to go past the preliminary round in the Tokyo Olympics women's 100m and 200m races. Sports Medicine expert Dr Sudeep Satpathy, a professor at the Kalinga Institute of Medical Sciences in Bhubaneswar, diagnosed the onset of level 1 cancer in Dutee's body. "I felt very scary, nervous, thinking what has happened to my life," Dutee told a news agency, recollecting the conversation she had with the doctor her after the MRI report.

CHESS PRODIGY

Checkmate on reluctant father: Arjun's convincing moves

U MAHESH @ Warangal

ON a day his son was playing one of the most crucial games of his career, neurosurgeon Srinivas Erigaisi was busy tending to patients in Warangal, so much so that he missed Arjun Erigaisi outplay Rameshbabu Praggnanandhaa in the first leg of the FIDE Chess World Cup 2023 quarterfinals in Baku on Tuesday.

Arjun would go on to lose the quarterfinal via tiebreak, but he had made the world sit up and take notice of his immense talent. When asked about his son's achievements, Srinivas, taking a break from his duties at the Srinivasa Neurocare Centre in Hanamkonda, was candid. "Actually, I was initially not interested in my son playing chess; my wish was that he enter civil services. Dreams don't always come true."

He, however, soon realised that his son was a chess prodigy, and now wholeheartedly supports Arjun's career, offering guidance and encouragement from afar. From the earliest stages of Arjun's education at Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan in Tirupati where Srinivas was stationed for three years, and at Warangal Public School in Hanamkonda later, it was Jyothi Erigaisi — Arjun's mother — who stood by him, nurturing his passion for chess.

Srinivas acknowledged his wife's dedication to Arjun's growth in the sport. Jyothi had accompanied her son to Baku to help him during the World Cup. Arjun's chess journey began to gain momentum when he was introduced to his first coach, Sampath, who recognised his prodigious talent. His rapid progress, including finishing a challenging chess puzzle book in just five days, left a lasting impression on his coach.

"The coach, Sampath, was shocked and called me on the phone. He said most students took months to solve the problems and even then, some puzzles would still not be finished. Your son Arjun is highly talented," said Srinivas.

Despite concerns about Arjun's health due to prolonged hours of practice — sometimes from 8 am to 8 pm — his dedication paid off. He participated in his first chess tournament at Anantapur and got fifth position, then went to Visakhapatnam for the State meet and got second place. He was then selected for a national meet held at Bhubaneswar that he won.

"When Arjun was in Class 10, I wanted him to stop and concentrate on studies; however, my wife Jyothi requested that I give him seven months and, if not successful, he was to stop playing," Srinivas said.

Conservation lessons from indigenous communities

USHA PERI @ Vizag

WORKING with the tribal and local communities to address pressing issues like climate change, deforestation, and habitat loss can be a humbling experience. Take Anant Shankar, an IFS officer and Visakhapatnam District Forest Officer. He found their understanding of conservation crucial in the projects he undertook in the region, like the successful mangrove restoration programme.

"Local fishermen played a crucial role. The entire process was carried out by hand, without machines. Our primary goal was not just restoration, but ecological restoration," he says. Everything from choosing the land, understanding the salt levels and tides, picking plant species, deciding when and how to plant, creating planting channels and determining their depth was done by them. "The success of the entire project hinged on their expertise. They offered us more insights than we provided them," he shares.

Anant Shankar

Anant and his team are actively engaged in seed collection from the Eastern Ghats, an endeavour central to conservation efforts. "The assistance of the local tribal communities has been pivotal in obtaining seeds of several plant species teetering on the brink of extinction within the region," he recalls. These communities also have loads of historical information on species that were once abundant but are now rare.

One striking example cited by Anant involves the Mesua ferrea species within a sacred grove in Paderu, near Visakhapatnam. "Within the confines of a sacred grove nestled in the Paderu, a species of Mesua ferrea holds great significance and is worshipped by the local inhabitants. Despite our unsuccessful attempts to cultivate this species using collected seeds, the locals possess a unique ability to safeguard it within their environment," he informs.

Beyond plants and trees, the expertise of these communities extends to the realm of fauna as well. A prime example is the Olive Ridley turtle conservation project in Andhra Pradesh, whose success is because of the forest department co-opting the local fishermen. "It was through their insights that the process of egg collection, the hatchling procedure and the safe release of the turtles back into the waters was comprehended," he adds. Documenting the native wisdom of tribals and the local communities is an imperative to create a knowledge bank for posterity, he points out.

INDIA'S AGRICULTURE SUSTAINABILITY AT RISK

JITENDRA CHOUBEY @ New Delhi

BETTER performance at socio-economic indicators may not translate into overall agricultural sustainability. Take Punjab and Haryana. A new agricultural sustainability index shows both states are way ahead in the socio-economic front but not in the overall agricultural sustainability index.

Scientists at the Indian Council for Agricultural Research have prepared a Composite Index of Agricultural Sustainability (CIAS), which shows Indian agriculture practices are moderately sustainable. They need timely intervention in priority areas to protect the country's food security.

At present, the most sustainable agriculture is practiced in Mizoram, Kerala, Andhra Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh and West Bengal while agriculture in arid Rajasthan is the least sustainable. According to the index, the better performing states have experienced sizable crop diversification, improvement in agriculture infrastructure, farm credit and sustainable input use.

The CIAS has 51 indicators to measure various patterns of agricultural sustainability. They are categorised under sections of soil health, water resources, biodiversity and ecology and socio-economic.

States in the Indo-Gangetic Plains—Uttar Pradesh, Punjab, Bihar, and Haryana—as also in the rice-dominant Jharkhand and Assam are at greater risk.

These states produce much of India's staple, thereby putting food security at risk if sustainability is threatened.

"A change in agricultural policies is necessary, from high input subsidies to a system that rewards multiple ecosystem services," says Dr Prem Chand, senior scientist at National Institute of Agricultural Economics and Policy Research, who prepared the CIAS along with Dr Kiran Kumara TM.

Chand suggests the use of technologies that can increase sustainability. "Practices like laser-aided land levelling, reduced or zero tillage, direct drill seeding, precise water management and crop diversification can provide economic and environmental benefits, but their adoption is limited," Chand says.

The CIAS average at the all-India level is 0.50, which indicates moderate sustainability. States performing better than the national average are Mizoram, Kerala, Madhya Pradesh, Andhra Pradesh, Manipur, West Bengal and Uttarakhand. (see table)

One of the four parameters of CIAS is soil sustainability. Poor soil quality leads to overuse of chemical fertilisers, lowering the soil organic carbon, which further increases groundwater exploitation.

States that performing well above the national average (0.59) on soil sustainability are Himachal Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, Gujarat, Andhra Pradesh, Uttarakhand and Kerala.

As for water sustainability, insufficient investment in soil and water conservation, low micro-irrigation coverage, and poor water productivity are a drag on its score. Karnataka, West Bengal, Assam, Mizoram are performing better than the all-India average (0.49) while Punjab, Haryana, Rajasthan, Gujarat and Himachal Pradesh are the worst performers on this index. The annual groundwater depletion rate is more than 40 cm in the worst performing states.

On the environmental sustainability index (ESI), states performing better than the all-India average (0.50) are Karnataka, Maharashtra, Mizoram and Uttarakhand. The worst performing states are Assam, Manipur, Jharkhand, Punjab and Telangana, which are characterised by cereal-based monoculture, declining acreage of leguminous crops, limited area under organic farming, and high greenhouse gas emissions from agriculture.

According to scientists, the key priorities for environmental sustainability are management of wastelands, preservation of pasture and grazing lands, conservation of plant species and expanding areas under natural or organic farming.

The socio-economic sustainability indicator shows Punjab and Haryana are far better than the rest of the states. Many underperforming states are short of labour and fertilisers, they have insufficient investment, not enough availability of protein besides poor bargaining power of farmers.

COMPOSITE INDEX OF AGRICULTURAL SUSTAINABILITY

THE NORMALISED SCORE FOR AN INDICATOR LIES BETWEEN ZERO AND ONE, WITH ZERO REPRESENTING THE LEAST SUSTAINABLE AND ONE THE HIGHLY SUSTAINABLE.

STATES	CIAS RANK
1 Mizoram	0.54
2 Kerala	0.54
3 Madhya Pradesh	0.53
4 Andhra Pradesh	0.53
5 Manipur	0.52
6 West Bengal	0.52
7 Uttarakhand	0.51

UN-UNICEF REPORT

Climate change accentuates gender skew against women

VANSHIKA SAWHNEY @ Chennai

AS one environmental disaster after another hammers the planet and wreaks chaos, the impact of climate change on vulnerable communities needs to be addressed with the seriousness it deserves.

Even within vulnerable communities, women are more likely to feel the impact of climate change as compared to men. A recent UNICEF-UN report states that in seven out of 10 households that don't have a source for potable water at home, women and girls are responsible for fetching it.

India is in a better position now as 60% of rural households have been provided piped water connections across the country since the launch of a Jal Jeevan Mission in 2019.

Gender inequality and climate change are tethered together in a complex manner. Over the past decade, many researchers have tried to showcase the ripple effects of climate change and how it impacts the livelihoods of women.

In contrast to men, women depend more on natural resources. Women hailing from low-to middle-income households are generally involved in the agriculture sector as men of the family take jobs in cities and towns. Thus, out of the sheer process of elimination, it is up to the women to do odd jobs like fetch water for households.

However, as nearby water resources decline steadily, women have to make longer journeys just to fetch water. As they put more effort into procuring this necessity, they tend to neglect other important activities like education and work. Moreover, they put themselves in harm's way as the route they walk on, sometimes, is fraught with danger which could even result in physical harm.

Girls are nearly twice as likely as boys to bear this responsibility and they spend more time doing it each day, the report said. Women and girls aged 15 and older are primarily responsible for water collection in 7 out of 10 such households, compared with 3 in 10 households for their male peers. Girls under 15 (7%) are also more likely than boys in the same age group (4%) to fetch water. But how does this affect their health?

Archanaa Seker, a Chennai based activist states, "During natural disasters the burden becomes twofold. As it is, women have to walk miles just to fetch drinking water. However, when disaster strikes women still have to make the same long journey but this time they have to make the commute in the middle of a disaster. This has repercussions of its own as women would be more prone to diseases, which occur in the aftermath of a disaster. In addition to soaring temperatures and flooded streets, the risk of disease complicates matters."

The report also highlights the absence of safe sanitation facilities for women. As they make long journeys to collect water, restrooms along the way are either severely unhygenic or are not there at all. Girls have also reported that they feel unsafe using facilities outside their home.

Additionally, more than half a billion people still share restrooms with other households thereby compromising on women's hygiene, safety and dignity. Recent surveys from 22 countries show that among households with shared toilets, women and girls are more likely than men and boys to feel unsafe walking alone at night and face sexual harassment and other safety risks.

"Climate change definitely reduces access to clean sanitation facilities. The people most affected by climate change are those who have the closest relationship with the natural ecosystem," says Seker. Vulnerable communities living in areas near polluting industries also have difficulties in storing water. "The driving factor of climate change is polluting industries. People who inhabit areas which are situated near such industries are impacted severely by it as they are exposed to higher levels of pollution thereby also impacting their capacity to store water for daily uses like drinking, washing and sanitation," Seker adds.

She further highlights that as long as we don't cut down on our pollution, these communities will always take the first hit and within these communities women will bear the brunt of climate change. So how do we address these issues?

"At a basic level we can have multiple primary healthcare systems which are climate resilient situated in the centre of communities. They can become safe spaces where people from all walks of life can access basic sanitation facilities and drinking water," says Seker. Climate change causes somewhat of a butterfly effect. Each and every strata of society is affected in innumerable ways. Moreover, gender inequality, which is embedded in our society, accelerates the problem. Our first job must be to introduce gender equality across water, sanitation and hygiene in households and focus on increasing healthcare facilities.

GETTING INVOLVED
MAHESWAR MOHANTA

THE WATCHER OF ORCHIDS IN SIMILIPAL

SUDARSAN MOHARANA @ Bhubaneswar

MAHESWAR Mohanta is neither a botanist nor an expert in forest biology. But his contribution to conservation of orchid species found in Similipal Tiger Reserve (STR) is truly inspiring.

A forest watcher in STR, Mohanta draws his wage as a semi-skilled labourer but has helped the forest department in identification and conservation of around 106 species of orchids in the tiger reserve.

Working in the field for over three decades, the man in his sixties is also the lone keeper of the orchidarium at Gurguria range in the tiger reserve.

Mohanta couldn't complete his Plus Two because of poor financial condition and started working as a watcher in Similipal around three-and-a-half decades back.

Considering his educational qualification and interest in forest conservation, B C Prusty, the then field director of Similipal, engaged him in orchid conservation after which he worked in the field for the first time with Sarat Mishra, an engineer in the forest department. By 1993, Mohanta had assisted Mishra in conservation of around 92 species of orchids in STR. When Mishra retired in 2000, it was Mohanta who kept the orchid conservation mission alive.

"As I had developed interest in the field, it became easier for me to identify the family and species of orchids and remember their names," Mohanta said. When senior IFS officer Anup Nayak became field director of STR in 2012, the number of orchids identified in Similipal had increased to 96. Mohanta continued his search for new species in Meghasini and other areas of tiger reserve. Despite receiving a paltry wage, he visited different locations of the forest on his own and sometimes ventured out with the protection squad members to look for new species.

After finding an orchid, he would immediately look for the place of its presence—terrestrial or epiphytes (growing on other plants rather than rooted in soil)—and visit the Regional Plant Resource Centre (RPRC) at Bhubaneswar with the samples for identification. Doing so, Mohanta so far has helped in identification and conservation of around 106 species of orchids. He also manages the orchidarium at Gurguria range in Similipal North. Dhaneswar, his elder son who completed his graduation, now supports Mohanta in conservation of the orchids as a watcher and orchid caretaker in another orchidarium in Similipal South division. Mohanta pins hope that his son would take up the mantle after him. Similipal Field director Prakash Chand Gogineni has only words of praise for Mohanta. "He could identify orchid species in Similipal with their scientific names. Much credit to him for the conservation in STR," he said.

Considering Mohanta's advancing age, STR management has started training a couple of forest guards in conservation of orchid species in Similipal forests.

RESTYLE & REVAMP

Traditional Schiffli work gets a new look in contemporary and ethnic fashion with B'lureans sporting it in casual wear, dresses, shirts and salwar suits

MONIKA MONALISA

THE young brigade of Bollywood has redefined being stylish-yet-comfortable. They are now acing the 'easy look' with Schiffli designs. While we have seen Ananya Pandey and Shanaya Kapoor donning dresses with the fabric in question, recently Khushi Kapoor wore its kurta-pyjama set at one of the promotions of her latest movie The Archies.

Khushi's set is from a brand known for its everyday indie wear. City-based fashion and content creator Divya Maben too picked a similar one from their latest collection. "I had bought it way before I saw Khushi Kapoor wearing it. The design is classic, we have all grown up wearing frocks made of that fabric. It has that old-world charm and I can totally understand why her stylist would have picked it for her," says Maben

The designs have taken the high-street style brand by storm with various ones offering multiple options and colours in different designs. Allivia Dan Langstieh, who studies at St Joseph's University and likes to keep up with the trend, says, "I picked mine from an MNC clothing brand after seeing many celebrities wearing it. It's fun and gives a holiday feel. Since it is quite warm these days, it goes well with the weather," says Langstieh.

If a white wardrobe is your thing, fashion designer Susan Fernandes, who helms a city-based sustainable brand, has a whole collection of white shirts with Schiffli designs. "We call it hakoba, which was very popular when we were growing up. The collection is classic, cool, summerly and comfortable. The embroidery design could be traditional but we have used it in a contemporary way. I have used the placement of the embroidered holes in an interesting way," says Fernandes, whose collection starts from ₹2,999++ and comes in five different sizes.

You don't have to walk into a store to own it. Being a classic design, it could be something found in your mother's closet. You could probably quickly snip and stitch it into new designs, just like what Ananya Babu did. "I saw this fabric in my mother's wardrobe. I always loved it and since it was common, I didn't think much of it. Suddenly, there is a boom and every youngster, especially celebs, is wearing dresses in this style. I now have a slit skirt and a boat-neck top, which my mom stitched," says the jewellery designer.

TRACING THE ROOTS

Schiffli embroidery is a type of machine embroidery that uses lock stitches to create patterns on lace fabric. Isaak Gröbli first came up with Schiffli machine embroidery in 1863. He developed a prototype in Uzwil, Switzerland. In 1864, JJ Rieter helped to further develop the invention in Winterthur.

Martial Arts competition to be held

Bengaluru is set to witness an electrifying display of martial arts as the 9th Pro Am Muay Thai Championship at Global Malls Divinity on August 19. Admission to the championship is free, and is open to all ages. The event is scheduled to kick off at 3pm and will continue until 8pm. The championship will feature a lineup of 20 matches that will leave spectators on the edge of their seats. Participants from across the nation will battle it out in the ring, showcasing their skill. The event includes five exhibition matches by the renowned Bulldog Arm Wrestling and two exhibition matches presented by the Karnataka Boxing Federation.

Handicrafts exhibition till August 27

Special handicraft items from different parts of the country will be available at the Indian Haat Festival, an exhibition-cum-sale till August 27. The manufacturers are selling their products directly to the consumers at cost-effective prices. Colourful and good-quality artefacts, sarees, household items are being sold. Ornamental items, intricately-carved handicrafts and designer clothes are also on sale in this exhibition. Jeevitha Jagdeesh, an artist, inaugurated the exhibition-cum-sale. "This meaningful exhibition is to be experienced. This has added an element of tradition and glitter to the Varamahalakshmi festival. We get to know the lifestyle of other states as well," she said.

FIT BIT

UTTHITA STITI EKA PADA VIRASANA
(RISING ONE LEGGED HERO POSE)

This is a beginner level standing pose, which mainly focuses on balancing on one leg. It is the reverse action of Standing Wind Release Pose with the foot held behind the hip while stretching the leg.

STEPS

- Start with Tadasana (Mountain Pose), and take in few breaths.
- After that, raise your right leg and fold it at the knee, and hold the right heel with the right hand.
- Ensure that the foot faces upward and gently presses the right buttock.
- Once comfortable in this position, make a Jnana Mudra in the left hand.
- Inhale and raise the left arm up, continuing to hold the mudra.
- Now, straighten the arm and lift it up, touching the left ear, and maintain the pose as per your capacity.
- Close your eyes if you can, otherwise, just look straight while being aware of the body-breath connections.
- While doing the pose, try holding the balance as long as you can and try to slowly increase the duartion with practise.
- Repeat the steps on the other side.
- To release, exhale, and come back to Tadasana, and relax by widening the legs and slackening the shoulders.

BENEFITS

- Stretches and strengthens the arms, chest, hamstrings and quadriceps.
- Knees gain better range of motion and brings stability and balance in the posture.
- Improves flexibility and strength within the engaged muscles, joints, ankles and knees.
- Ensures side rib cage, chest, upper abdomen, shoulders, and armpits are active.
- Improves concentration and boosts memory.
- Helps the spine in getting the correct alignment.
- Challenges the stability of hips and shoulders.
- Helps with the upward and downward flow of energy.
- The action of lengthening, holding and releasing will keep the body's energy (prana) active and moving.
- Will help in overcoming the negative emotions.
- Improves immunity, blood circulation and helps with functioning of the lungs, blood circulation and reproductive system.
- Helps in avoiding sciatica and kyphosis.

LIMITATIONS

People having injuries in joints, muscles, ligaments of the legs, arms, wrist, knees, spine, ribcage, abdomen, hips, shoulders, and ankles, and those who have difficulty standing, or have hernia, severe arthritis or joint pain, and pregnant women with lower abdomen pressure, avoid this pose.

It is advisable for senior citizens to get checked by an expert before doing this.

By N Elumalai, PhD Scholar (Yoga Science) at Meenakshi Academy of Higher Education & Research, Chennai

A COMPELLING NAVEEN SHANKAR IS THE HIGHLIGHT OF THIS FILM ON THE NEED TO EMBRACE AGRICULTURE

A SHARADHAA

KSHETRAPATI
Director: Shrikant Katagi
Cast: Naveen Shankar, Archana Jois, Achyuth Kumar, Rahul Ainapur, and Natya Ranga

AMIDST a sea of cinematic narratives weaving tales of agrarian struggles, emerges Kshetrapati like a guiding light, illuminating the ongoing crisis engulfing rural communities. Leading the charge is Naveen Shankar, an actor known for his roles in films such as Gultoo, Hondisi Bareyiri, Dharani Mandala Madhyadolaga, and Gurudev Hoysala. The film marks the directorial debut of Shrikant Katagi, who infuses Kshetrapati with a perspective deeply rooted in his formative years in Gadag and offers a unique vantage point into the tribulations of agriculturists. The question remains—can Kshetrapati dare to offer a panacea? Does it defy the established cinematic conventions that often cast farmers' struggles into a formulaic mould?

While the film's purpose is clear, it follows the well-trodden path of the 'struggling ordinary man challenges the system' narrative that is a hallmark of Indian cinema. Yet, at its core, the film pulsates with sincerity, highlighting the indomitable spirit of farmers against a backdrop of entrenched corruption and corporate encroachment.

As the credits roll, a lingering question emerges: Can educated youth adopting agriculture herald a transformation in the lives of those who toil upon it? This query takes root as we witness the journey of Basava (Naveen Shankar). Set against the backdrop of North Karnataka, the film delves into the heart-wrenching realm of farmers' suicides through the prism of its protagonist.

The film opens with young Basava daydreaming in class about securing a well-paying job in the USA. However, his dream is abruptly shattered by the professor, and life takes another devastating turn when Basava learns of his father's untimely demise due to the unrelenting pressures of farming. This tragic event compels the young engineering student to halt his academic pursuits in Bengaluru and return to his family: a stepmother and a sister. While unable to undo his father's death, Basava strives to understand the circumstances behind it. He is shocked to discover the plight of the farmers in his village, who remain under the control of a local politician (Rahul Ainapur), who exploits their vulnerabilities and uses financial tactics to keep the villagers in his grasp.

RATING 3/5

Basava faces his own challenges as he tries to stand up for what he believes in. His journey is tough as he deals with the complicated problems that affect his community. He takes on a big challenge and goes through a significant change, leaving behind his dreams of a different life to tackle the tough realities of farming.

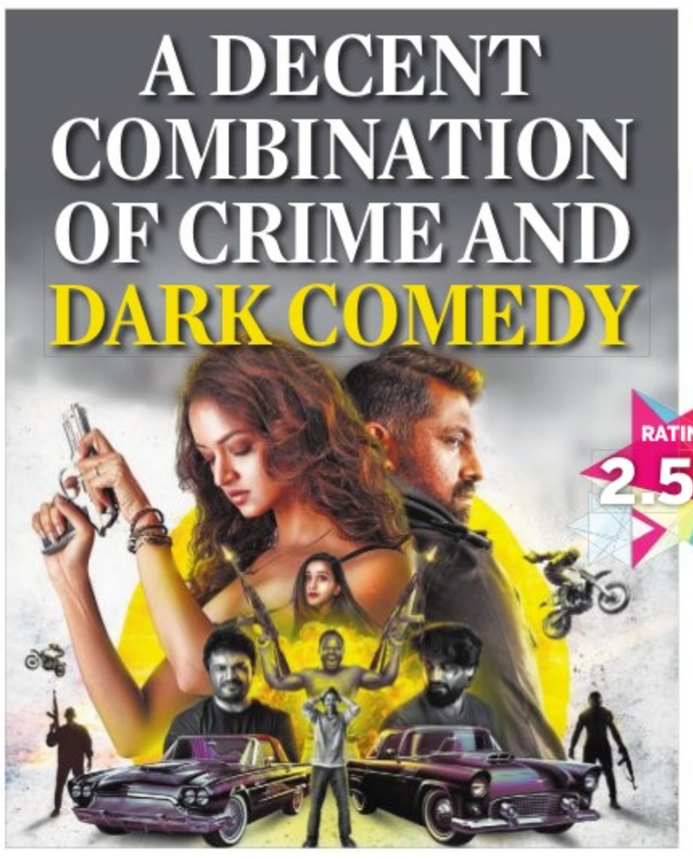
However, it's important to acknowledge that Shrikant Katagi does attempt to infuse fresh perspectives despite operating within the confines of a well-trodden path. The film's runtime is a cause of concern. However, the story is laden with moments of authenticity, particularly in its depiction of North Karnataka's landscape and culture. Naveen Shankar carries the entire film on his shoulders, delivering with dedication, his mastery of the North Karnataka dialect, mixing in English words at times, and imparting agricultural knowledge to his villagers. Shankar's earnest performance and the film's regional authenticity are the film's strengths.

Archana Jois as journalist Bhoomika adds value to the ensemble with her presence. Achyuth Kumar as the newspaper publisher and Rahul Ainapur, the film's antagonist, are painted with broad strokes. Krishna Hebbale as a politician, Shailashree Urs as Basava's mother, and Natya Ranga as his friend lend credibility to various roles, contributing to the film despite limited character development, Furthermore, the film's atmosphere is artfully highlighted by Ravi Basrur's music. His background score aptly sets the tone and complements the characters, and adding depth to the narrative.

Intriguingly, the film navigates to the point where ambition meets adversity, and how hope and difficulty come together. Basava's transition from engineering to getting back to rural life presents an allegorical voyage, mirroring the many transitions that farmers themselves must make in the face of insurmountable odds. As the film casts its spotlight on this crucible of change, it beckons us to ponder whether Basava's journey could be the harbinger of a broader transformation, not only for his character but for the larger narrative of farmer struggles that resonate through the ages.

Kshetrapati carries the potential to shed light on the hardships faced by farmers, particularly in Karnataka. If you're seeking a glimpse into the struggles of farmers and are willing to look past the film's conventional storytelling, Kshetrapati might offer you a chance to connect with the plight of those who toil on the land.

A DECENT COMBINATION OF CRIME AND DARK COMEDY



BAANG
Director: Sree Ganesh Parashuram
Cast: Shanvi Srivastava, Raghu Dixit, and Ritvik Muralidhar

RATING 2.5/5

A SHARADHAA

IN the realm crafted by debut director Sree Ganesh Parashuram, the term 'bang' takes on a new meaning. With Kichcha Sudeep's baritone booming as a voice-over at the right intervals, Baang morphs into a unique hybrid of crime, dark comedy, and a gangster-themed action thriller. The director embarks on a journey of experimentation in this just over two-hour film, delivering an experience that resonates like the echoing of a 'bang'.

One striking aspect of the film is Shanvi Shrivastava's maiden portrayal of a gangster. Accompanying her are singer-composer Raghu Dixit and music director Ritvik Muralidhar, both making their acting debuts. This rare combination of talents, fused with action and thriller elements, beckons us to explore the unique attributes they bring to Baang.

The narrative of Baang unfolds with Aarav (Ritvik Muralidhar) seizing the chance for a night out, spurred by his brother's desire for privacy with his girlfriend. Along with his younger brother, Ayush and two friends, Sunil (Sunil Gujjar) and Bhushan (Natya Ranga), Aarav is out for an enjoyable evening. However, the jovial atmosphere takes an unexpected twist as they fall prey to a sudden attack by criminals. Pursuing a drugs-filled bag supposedly stowed in the car's trunk, the assailants take the younger brother hostage, demanding that the gang of friends retrieve and deliver the bag to Daddy (Raghu Dixit). This description merely scratches the surface of the intensity that unfolds, setting off a sequence of occurrences culminating in an action-packed climax.

The director employs an innovative narrative structure, breaking the story into chapters named after iconic Kannada films such as Trimurthy, Jedara Bale, Operation Diamond Rocket, and Hello Daddy, among others.

While Baang may not fulfill all the check boxes of an unequivocal entertainer, it undoubtedly deserves recognition for its innovative presentation.

The director draws inspiration from modern auteurs, skillfully adopting diverse narrative techniques and angles. Even if the execution occasionally falls short, the film does work as a showcase of his multifaceted talent. A more refined script and judicious handling of these experiments could propel Ganesh's directorial endeavours to even greater heights.

The film's evocative background score and music by Ritvik Muralidhar bestow an unconventional ambience upon this experimental thriller.

It is a uniformly performed series with actors Ritvik, Raghu Dixit, Sunil Gujjar, Bhushan, Sathivika, and actor Jahangir definitely scoring high. The film for all its merits and demerits will be best remembered for showcasing Shanvi in a new light, and it is a welcome addition to her repertoire.

I will return to acting, despite my directorials, if Hemanth M Rao offers: Rakshit Shetty

Team Sapta Sagaradaache Yello

CE FEATURES

QUIET people often hold strong feelings needed for lively stories," stated Hemanth M Rao during the trailer launch of Sapta Sagaradaache Yello on Thursday, which was held amidst much fanfare. He is hopeful that this deep statement of his will reflect in the upcoming romantic drama starring Rakshit Shetty, and Rukmini Vasanth as leads.

The actor and director have reunited after Godhi Banna Sadharana Mykattu, for Sapt..., which unfolds in two parts—Side A arrives on September 1, followed by Side B on October 20. The film's distribution will be handled by KVN Productions. The event also saw the presence of actor Chaithra Achar, who will be seen in Side B, music director Charan and cinematographer Advaitha Gurumurthy.

Though the film is not confirmed for a pan-Indian release, it will be dubbed into other languages based on demand.During the event, Rakshit shared, "Once I'm done with my role in Sapta..., I'll turn my focus to directing Richard Anthony, produced by Hombale Films. I'll continue to act in my directorials, with my prime focus on filmmaking," said the actor-director.

He went on to reflect on his cinematic goals, Rakshit outlined upcoming projects like Punyakoti and Midway to Moksha. "My priority is filmmaking; acting will be side gig. However, I've emphasised that I'll return to acting, despite my direction responsibilities if Hemanth M Rao offers. This shift aligns with my decision during Ulidavaru Kandante to provide a platform for impactful stories. Paramvah Studios is the result, enabling me to produce a film directed by Hemanth, a source of immense pride. The studio's success has guided me towards directing more films, with acting taking a secondary role," Rakshit said.

A modest origin story, a fantastic family drama

AVINASH RAMACHANDRAN

BLUE BEETLE
Director: Ángel Manuel Soto
Cast: Xolo Maridueña, Adriana Barraza, Damián Alcázar, Susan Sarandon, George Lopez

THERE was a time when superhero films were simple. It didn't need us to keep abreast of what was happening in multiple universes across franchises and watch them on different platforms. There was a time when superhero films were simple. In many ways, DC's latest, Blue Beetle, which is said to be the relaunch of the DC Extended Universe under James Gunn and Peter Safran, is a simple film. There is a sentient entity. There is an unassuming youngster. There are corporate conglomerates with world-domination aspirations. And through a simple switcheroo... bam! We have the Blue Beetle.

We are so used to overtly complex subplots that the power of good ol' simplicity hits us like a ton of bricks. Jaime Reyes (Xolo Maridueña) returns from Gotham Law School to his city of Palmera, which is a rather colourful version of Gotham but run by Kord Industries. Beneath all the colour, there is the problem of this conglomerate taking over the livelihoods and living spaces of the Mexicans who have been living in the city since forever. The big bad Kord Industries is run by Victoria (a terrific Susan Sarandon), who wants to harness the power of the 'Scarab' — a sentient and symbiote AI (Alien Intelligence) — to create an army of super soldiers. But there is one glitch... the scarab aka Khaji-da chooses its host... and no points guessing who is Khaji-da's new host.

RATING 3/5

The film is essentially an origins story of how Jaime and Khaji-da become the Blue Beetle, and it takes quite a fascinating route to get there. Most origin stories have similar beats, be it the DCEU or the MCU, but one thing that is common across the board is the importance of a secret identity. In fact, subverting this concept was the biggest highlight of MCU's first revamp all the way back in 2008 with Iron Man. Similarly, Jaime becomes Blue Beetle right in front of his eclectic but loving family, and it is their presence that adds wind beneath this beetle's wings.

Considering how the origins story doesn't really do anything new and is too careful to not look like anything old, Blue Beetle almost gets lost in the middle. But the light at the end of this tunnel is the familial connections that fuel the journey, and act as effective power surges whenever the film tends to saunter instead of sprinting. Be it Jaime's street-smart and sassy sister Milagro (Belissa Escobedo), his techie motormouth uncle Rudy (George Lopez), parents (Damían Alcázar, Elpidia Carrillo), and grandma Nana (Adriana Barraza), it is the family that holds the film together. They not only join the comedy portions but hold their own in the adventure ones too by turning up to save the superhero in the most unexpected of ways. Although the scenes featuring Jaime and Kord's good-natured heir apparent Jenny Kord (Bruna Marquezine) are ordinary at best, and distracting at worst, they help in pushing the plot forward, and for that, it warrants its stay.

While the film is about a young man, bolstered by the love for his family, accepting the cards handed out to him, and becoming the eponymous superhero, Blue Beetle isn't without its own set of nuances. The film acknowledges the hardships faced by the downtrodden, especially immigrants. Through a wonderfully poignant monologue by the otherwise genial Uncle Rudy and a couple of conversations between Jaime and his father, we are made aware of the sacrifices an immigrant family has to do to just be together. "Our superpower is being invisible to people like that," says Milagro when talking about the Kords just not responding to a simple 'hello'. There is a killer line about the term 'alien' that Rudy delivers in passing, which is heartwrenching yet reflects a sense of nonchalance about their plight.

By the time Jaime, and in many ways, we, understand the sentient being's full potential, Blue Beetle reaches its end. The primary antagonist and her super soldier prototype have an interesting connection, but the spoils come too late into the narrative, and it feels more like an afterthought. Also, the superhero isn't really stretched to his limits, and rather ironically, the high-flying film feels more at home when it is grounded by the family portions. The conversations between the family members give us a better insight into the superhero when compared to the slightly uninspiring and generic action set-pieces.

But for all intents and purposes, there is no doubt that Blue Beetle is a safe first step for the new DCEU. It is young, vibrant, politically correct, pertinent, and a decent origin story. In 2013, we started on a journey with Zack Snyder and DCEU with Man of Steel. A decade later, here we are with another blue alien saving the day. With Blue Beetle, we have buckled in our seatbelts tight for the next part of this journey, and it is going to be interesting, and hopefully, a lot of fun to see where Gunn and Safran take us from here.
